How Magical!!

I so enjoyed our session over the telephone with you and your Guides. How magical. The dots are beginning to connect, and whenever I "get" something, I laugh out loud. Thank you so much for everything, and please thank your incredible Guides for me as well. I browsed through your website. I had no idea before I spoke with you, as to what you do... and WOW. :) I am checking in with my Angels and Guides as to the next steps on my Journey. It would be fantastic if I am able to come to Egypt. I will definitely keep in touch.

With Love -Tasnim M.

Thank You Thank You Thank You!!

Thank you so much for allowing me to experience your Guides. This came at a perfect time for me and I am unable to put into words how it has lifted me in a way that was much needed for me at this time.

This has been a blessing and I look forward to being able to experience it over and over again with the recording. I also hope that soon I can travel to Egypt with you and make the connection I have desired for a very long time. After speaking with you, I can't imagine a more wonderful way to do so than on one of your trips.

I am grateful we have connected!

Thank you again so much! Tammy B

YES! Your words touched my heart!

I already knew that much love towards myself was needed...but it was just a thought, now I realize that this is what I have to do first! And yes, again, it's few months that I don't address to my Guides, and I was feeling the lack of those "meetings", but for several reasons I did not. It's now a must for me to do again my daily meditations, asking to my Guides to guide me.

It's a big pleasure to express to you my gratitude for what you have done and to give thanks to your Guides too.

Light and Love to you, Antonella M.

I have felt a new level of peace since our conversation.

I've listened to the recording once and will listen again. This is so helpful. I have felt a new level of peace since our conversation, and that is wonderful!

I enjoyed both parts of our conversation: speaking and asking questions of your guides, and our personal chat afterward. Thank you so much for all your time and care. I would love to meet you. I truly believe we are drawn to certain people for a reason, and I'm very interested in the work you are doing.

- DiAnna R

I am most grateful to you for doing this session for me.

To the guides: many thanks for the advice, it does resonate with me and encourages me to continue in this vein, understanding more clearly this explanation of "vibrational escrow" - very helpful! The hard part has been to purge worry, and I am doing better

Thank you for sharing your gift! Naomi B

I am still fascinated and so encouraged by my session with you and your guides.

I make it a point to try and connect each day with the guides I know are there for me and also somehow knowing, it will not take long before it becomes very easy. I can only smile with gratitude for that opportunity and also for your kinds words of encouragement. Although I cannot consciously define the changes I feel occurring, I know they are taking place and I feel so much more positive--a total blessing!

Thank you for your Ebook, I thoroughly enjoyed it! I am so glad you are enjoying the work you are doing now and I'd like to tell you that it really shows. I believe that since you are finding such enjoyment from what you do, and consider it a combination of all your loves, then you must really be fulfilling your life's purpose.

Thank you so very much for this session.

Thank you so very much for this session. It means a lot to me. I will definitely listen to it many, many times. I was a bit nervous before calling, but the moment I heard your voice, everything was well. I thought your voice had so much warmth in it and it's very cute and pleasant to hear.

I was actually slightly uncertain about the existence of guides and channeling, but I'm glad in the end I decided to talk to you and your guides. While they were talking, I could feel my body all tingly and light. I felt loved. Their answers really put my worries to rest, and I will try my best to do the exercise every single day to strengthen my connection.

Foreword

“Welcome - we are glad you are here. We wish to express to you our gratitude and ever enfolding love. As we watch all the things that are evolving on your planet, we have hope. We have hope because we can feel the immense love that is alive on your planet. Love is the most powerful energy in the universe and we are working behind the scenes to magnify that feeling. Once you truly feel love from your God source, you have an inner knowing that nothing else is really important. We are glad you took this time to read our words and as we take our leave of you, we enfold you in our love dear ones. We are ATON.”

“You are powerful beings of Light and We are with you always to assist in everything you do. You just have to call to us and we are activated to full action.”

Author's Note

I have always been “different” and felt and understood things differently than most always having been very empathic, sensitive and intuitive. Even from childhood I could sense things, read people, and my dreams were extremely prophetic and vivid. Being raised in a very loving but strict Protestant Christian family, I learned to keep my true searching questions, doubts and beliefs quietly to myself.

Once I embraced these questions, I constantly searched and read anything and everything on metaphysical studies and teachers, different religions, auras, gemstones, oracle cards, and such. Many nights were spent crying and praying until I would fall asleep. One night I had a vision of three beings standing by the bed. They spoke to me by way of telepathy rather than by actually speaking. After that, that all my doubts vanished. In that moment, I felt my spiritual path was obviously laid out; the door began to open by leading and allowing me to study with many wonderful spiritual, metaphysical teachers, healers, and mentors.

I have been an initiate of Paramhansa Yogananda since the early 80's and a member of the Rosicrucian Order AMORC since 1991 and have concentrated on metaphysical studies for years. I received my Doctor of Divinity certification from the Universal Life Church. As I grew, my abilities developed and now I receive messages and information from many Ascended Masters, Arch Angels, and other worldly Light Beings including Egyptian gods/goddess regularly.

In 2009, I retired from corporate America as a Senior Executive Administrative Assistant and lead Procurement Technician for a Global Fortune 100 company. My co-workers in corporate seemed to recognize I was different, but they just didn't know how different.

Early on, I was told ATON was the name I could use for my Guides. I was familiar with Ester Hicks channeling her guides by the name of Abraham, Theo with Eva Gregory and Theos with Shelia Gillette; I thought I needed a name too for identification. ATON was a name my Guides knew I would be more comfortable with to be able to continue receiving their messages. As I grew stronger in accepting and understanding, they revealed that AMUN-RA and ISIS are my main guides due to a strong Egyptian connection from the past, and as I continued to grow and evolve, other high level beings of light would come to work with me, which they did and still do.

I now understand that am a Representative from the Council of Ornack that has been sent to hold the energetic space between heaven and earth for the Divine Feminine aspects to return and assist Mother Earth in Her resurrection. I help a person raise their vibration so they are open to receive all the goodness and wellness that is theirs already.

My Guides told me that the Council of Ornack is basically unknown on the earth and I was to begin the introduction of them and their work.

Below are some of the messages they gave me explaining a little about this book and the Council of Ornack.

“It will be a small book that will describe about us. We are many and we like for you to start educating the people about us. We are all part of Source energy. You are, we are, everything is. This small book will discuss briefly who all will be introduced and we will add others as you grow.

There are many avenues that we can reach the human race and typing as you are doing is a very quick way for us to communicate with you. We are all from another grouping of stars and the human race as it is known today is no exception. The only difference between the humans and us is that the humans, most of them, had forgotten. We have not, you see, and we are to awaken and remind humanity of their power, abilities and their beginning. Little is known of humanities beginning but we know all of it. We were there and we helped to motivate each one of you to come into form. It was a beautiful thing to watch and it still is a beautiful thing as we look upon you today.

There is much happening in the world all around and once humanity fully awakens, your planet will truly become the (new) world, the New Earth. A complete and pure and whole Garden of Eden, a paradise, and we Masters will walk among you again as we did in olden days. This new world, new earth period will last for many millions of years and we are so excited and happy as we look and see how quickly all is unfolding already. Keep making your calls to us and we will keep on paving the path making it ready upon which you will walk.

We enfold you in our love totally and completely our blessed messenger and we leave you be for now. We are your guardians, The Council of Ornack: The Chancellors of all Matter.”

2nd Message about the Book and the Council of Ornack

“You don’t have to do anything to get into the right vibration for us to be with you. We are always with you, just think on us and we are here, you see.

Now as for this book, it will be easy and simple and everyone will love it. Start with the simplest ways to explain things, as you would to a child almost. Simplicity is always the best because it leaves no room for extra confusion.

We, the Council of Ornack, have been guiding and watching humanity for billions of life lines. We wait until the earth plane is ready to receive messages and then we transmit through messengers such as you. There are many now who are receiving our messages but not all are getting the message clearly. Even as you can notice, if your ego consciousness is not understanding or recognizing something we tell you, immediately it receives resistance and that’s how the messages can easily be changed. We are glad that you noticed this and allowed us to correct you with it. Each time you notice resistance from now forward, we know that you will allow us to erase it and we can then move forward with our messages through you to the planet.

Just know ALL is well and all will continue to be well; even though the outer appearances do not seem so currently. However, all is well and as it should be. We are guarding and protecting and observing so have not fear. Relax, project your thoughts through pure, clear, clean, happy emotions; close your eyes, breathe and relax. Once you get information, then take some sort of action to anchor that impression to you and it will manifest. We are now giving you words for your teachings and for your books so you may go through this discourse and used pieces as you must, with our guidance, for different outcomes that you need the to go forward. It is good to come together to co create is it not? We know we are sounding like Abraham-Hicks. Who do you think Abraham is a part of? We are all connected. ALL connected.”

3rd Message about the Book and the Council of Ornack

“We will help you with this. Yes, you may put that ATON is a member from the Council of Ornack. That will start to help the people to make the connection. You are in fact a member of the Council of Ornack and you could state that also if you wish. Your human ego will block this impression but it’s true. So let it sit with you a bit. YOU are our selected, representative to help humanity so please allow these impressions to rest easy with you.

You are one of us from the Council. That is why you were sent and same for your twin flame in Egypt. Your work is together and the increased awareness that will take place in humanity will be in about 1 ½ earth year time frame. This is the difference of which is being spoken. We will help you with your informational product for our discourses¹, which of course will be given by us. You already know this. You as a council member are strong enough to handle the first discourse. It will be well and everyone will be very receptive to the messages.”

My job as a Council Representative incarnated on the Earth plane at this time is to educate my brothers and sisters that they are to turn toward and recognize their greater abilities. The Divine Feminine nature is to be awakened in their heart centers in order to lead all decisions in their lives. When enough of our fellow humans recall that they are all brothers and sisters of the Divine, the Divine Feminine qualities of genuine love, compassion, and grace will become the system across this planet. The Divine Feminine is a way of living, from our heart center so that we will all function as light beings, in gracious and joyful lives of abundance and prosperity.

With the help of my Guides, I open the way for others to intuitively hear, see, and understand their own personal guides and spiritual connections so they can learn to trust the wisdom and enjoy the peace that is there for them.

I also host regular meditation/healing Divine Feminine soul journeys to the Great Pyramids at Giza in Egypt where ISIS and Amun-RA first communicated with me about my mission and my work with the Essences. I'm the exclusive supplier of the beautiful high vibrational Egyptian Essences in the United States which are blessed by ISIS, Amun-RA and the Holy Man in Giza, Egypt

As a fine artist for over 35 years, my artwork has always been guided and channeled even before I realized what that really meant. My Guides helped me to paint the "Messages from Beyond" art pieces that compliment the ten Egyptian chakra essences. The original paintings are 30" X 40 " each and I was inspired to paint night and day until I finished all ten canvases. Basically, they were all completed in a two week time frame which is extremely fast even for an established painter like me.

When working with the essences and the artwork, I love to watch the change in attitude, personality and even looks on the faces of my clients when they are in a session. There is a dramatic change that is beyond amazing. Most move from a space of upset, sadness, confusion and even fear to a place of relaxed ease, peace, happiness. They leave smiling with an eager light hearted curiosity to be in their lives after being shown a view from a different perspective. They learn that trust and letting go is an important component to allow change and growth to manifest in their lives. Once they feel comfortable enough to allow that, I know they have hit a breakthrough. The loving energy and power that the Guides continuously manifest can be felt strongly in person, over the phone, or through the computer. Every session experiences the healing, loving essence of the Guides.

I wake up every day happy, grateful and excited about what my next steps will be on this wonderful path that I now walk hand and hand with my Guides and with the connection of my twin flame from Giza. My Guides have often said that the right people would be magnetically drawn in and to always expect the unexpected. I often hear from people I meet that they don't know why but they just felt like they should contact me, and they are so glad they did. I just smile and thank my Guides for helping them to listen to their inner guidance and awaken just a little bit more to recognize their true power.

What I would love for you to take away from reading this book is simple: As you read the beginning dialogue between the guides and I, simply put yourself in my place and you will be able to recognize that your guides are also speaking to you. They speak to every one of us all the time; we just have to be aware and learn to recognize it. See, it is simple. Just trust, breathe, allow, ask and listen. They are always there.

I love you and I am very excited that the time has come to share these wise and wonderful channeled messages from my Guides with you.

Much love, blessings and tons of hugs – Rev. Dr. Madalyn
Kennedy

Introduction

“We Love You Dearly!”

You will hear this often from my Guides as they share their wonderful messages. Whether you are attending one of my live channeling events around the world, receiving any of a variety of energetic healing work; like hands on energy healing, remote distance healing, having a card reading or private channeling session, my Guides always make sure it is understood: “YOU are Dearly Loved.”

Each time I return to Egypt, I undergo more and more changes, shifts, and attunements that are facilitated by my Guides and the Holy Man there. I realize that my training, growth and learning experiences are always on-going. My Guides are very patient and always loving with their assistance and wise advice. Their words explain things simply and clearly. They always have the right answers.

When you read through them, you will discover certain statements that are repeated. They just want us to remember these things clearly as they keep repeating. The words and the spaces on the page are vibrational powerful and you will be activated as you read them.

You can read this book straight through or you can just simply select a page and read that message for a daily inspiration or guidance. You will find that these messages will give you a spiritual “booster shot”, so to speak, when you need it the most.

Be sure to read daily the “You are a Universal Being of Power” Isis shared with us below. Drink plenty of water and meditate with this wonderful power statement. Allow yourself to get into the space of acceptance. Keep the impression of her words with you throughout your day. Remind yourself as often as you necessary to place yourself back into the space of Divine Feminine love that surrounded you as you read this beautiful statement. There is also a very beautiful light body meditation from Isis that I have included at the end of the book for you to use as often as you like.

“You are a Universal Being of Power.

Never doubt who you are.

Stand in your power to become one with us.

In doing so you will always make the right decisions,

Coming from your heart center only.

Cast aside any judgments and expectations.

Know the Divine that is working within always

Prepares and creates the absolute best for you.

Remember to see the Ultimate Source in everyone.

Once you can interact with others from this perspective

You have re-discovered your own true Master Supreme.”

I AM ISIS”

Channeled to Madalyn Kennedy

The Divine Feminine is a way of living from our heart center. This is what we are currently experiencing on Mother Earth now. Her true Divine Feminine nature will no longer be hidden from us.

The loving mother that She is, the progression of changes in evolution that She experiences is being shared with us. As She evolves, She is taking her children along with her. Mother Earth's ascension is also our ascension, my dear brothers and sisters. We will evolve with our nurturing and loving mother. She could never leave us behind, even though we have done our best in many ways to destroy Her.

The great lies that have been imprinted on humanity's consciousness for the last 2,000 years are starting to unravel. Historically, control over the energies of the Divine Mother have stemmed from a fear based ego. The Supreme Being had to be male according to the fearful ego, but enough time has passed that the Mother Supreme Being energy can no longer be hidden by false accusations. No longer can the Divine Feminine be held down and hidden as it was in the early Christian teachings of Mary Magdalene.

Both Mother Mary, the Mother of Jesus, and Mary Magdalene represented the energies of Divine Mother, the Divine Feminine. According to the ancient Egyptian and Essene teachings, they were very high initiates of the Temple of Isis and were holding the Divine Feminine energies that enabled Jesus to perform his work and his Sacred Mission. We also, as humans, hold the Divine Feminine energies that will assist and help our Mother Earth to perform her Sacred Mission: to ascend to the 5th dimension of Love and Light and carry us, her children, with her.

In reading these channeled messages your light body, a crystalline light body, will start to be activated. These messages, their words, are powerful energy and transmit a high vibration of love and healing. Consciously or unconsciously your light body will begin to emerge. Your re-awakening from the mortal to the immortal through the Divine Feminine, the new way of life on this planet, is happening now.

As I have progressed with receiving these beautiful messages personally and through many client sessions, I understand that the messages given, in one way or another, are insights for each one of us. Though we are not always ready to receive some of the information, but rest assured that the correct information is given, and at times reflection and awareness is most important. Little by little, but at times extremely rapidly, we are re-awakening to a deeper level of awareness of who we are and of what we are made.

The content and language of these channeled messages are as I received them and unedited aside from some glaring typos and extra personal content. There are places where you will be able to read the interaction and internal communication between myself and my Guides. Throughout the following chapters, you are going through this with me as I did at the time I received the message. Most of the dialogue to or about me was for assurance and to help remove any self doubt. It was encouragement to continue. But as I mentioned before, even though at times it seems like the message was specifically for me, I believe that we all are connected and so in a way, the messages are for you to reflect upon also.

Being a channel is an unusual occupation and hard for most people to understand. But the feeling of love, bliss and grace and the ‘knowing’ that comes with receiving these blessed messages and then the joy of sharing them is indescribable. I believe we all receive inspiration, listen to our intuition, enjoy our creative projects and live our lives by receiving our own messages in our own way from a higher dimension. I believe we are all channels. It’s encouraging to remember that we are being helped when we need it and that we just have to remember to ask.

As I was finishing this book, I was reminded of the importance of the magical Egyptian essences. It was because of the spiritual clearing and healing at the ancient temple ruins in Egypt a few years back that I started receiving strong messages from Amun-RA, ISIS and many other Ascended Masters. At that time, I had made an agreement with Amun-RA and ISIS to bring these powerful spiritual ascension tools (their essences) to as many as I could, and I gladly accepted this mission.

ISIS and Amun-RA understood how these powerful essences would help us open up and allow a new consciousness and understanding to grow and develop. Amun-RA has asked me many times to “bring our people home - to the land of their roots”, and ISIS has declared so many times that she is the Guardian of the Essences. I still bring people to Egypt but for those who are unable to travel there, I have brought the energy, love, and feeling of our Egyptian roots back to share with you.

The amazing power that is in the essences is what we all need to be able to make our shift; to welcome the Divine Feminine energies and become the light beings, the crystalline beings, from mortal to immortal that we really are. I have included excerpts from some of the live channeling discourse sessions where ISIS spoke on this very topic.

Discourse Excerpt December 2010

ISIS

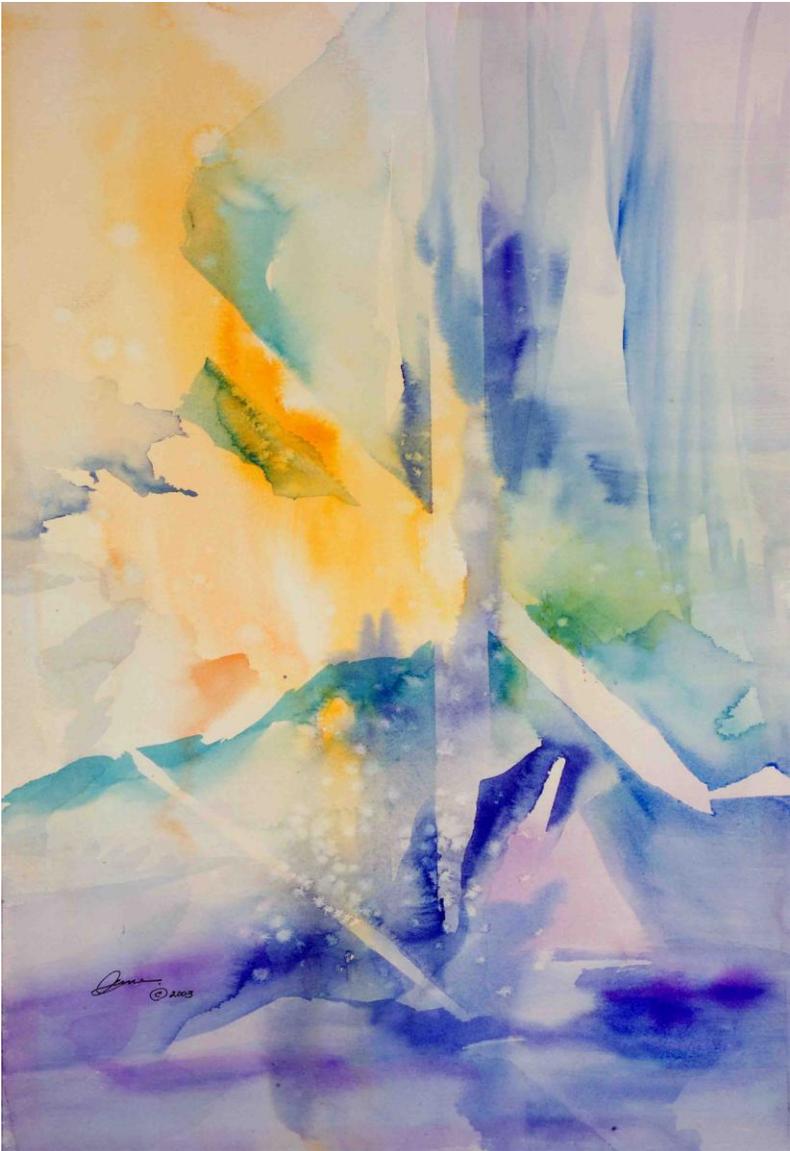

“I am Isis. I am the Guardian of the Essence. It is serious, serious, serious, serious what you just heard about the power of the Essences and the power of each one of you. The Essences were sent here for a purpose. They are with the correct people they are to be with at this time and space. And they will be shared with many others. It is an AWAKENING. This is an awakening. This is a new beginning.”

Discourse Excerpt January, 2010

I AM ISIS

“I am the Guardian of the Essences. We always have Madalyn place an Essence on every one of you because the Essences help us to communicate better with you so that you are more freely to do your work; more freely to stop the blocks and the changes that come to you all day long that can throw you off your path. As many of you know, we have said many times before, the Essences are very powerful. We cannot stress that enough. They are not the typical, ordinary type of essence that you would think they are. We have blessed them. We have our vibration on them. They have come from Egypt, from our messenger there who has also blessed and placed his vibration on them. So they are more than triple whammied. So, of course, they are going to work without any question.”

Part 1: Divine Feminine Your Crystalline Light Body

I questioned more and more about who they were, what they needed of me, and why they picked me. They started explaining many things in answer to my questions, and so much more that I did not expect. Amun-RA begin answering when I questioned the name given and then again what were they trying to tell me and what it meant.

“We are Amun-RA and you are our child. We have been with you from the beginning and we will be with you always. We have much to say and you are our chosen one who will say what we need to say. As far as who we are, you know that we are the God of all living things. We ARE. You have served us many, many lifetimes and now in this lifetime you are strong enough to stand up for what needs to be said. We are with you holding you up. Nothing will harm you. Nothing will stop you. You are our messenger. The Council of Ornack is part of the Almighty and the mission you have undertaken is massive. However, not so massive when you let us handle all things. Without us, nothing would be accomplished anyway. And you know this. You are always so willing to call to us and check in to make sure you are doing as required and that is exactly perfect in what we need you to do. The messages can be lengthy or they can be shorter. But they will come to you through us. Do not worry about the discourse. We have everything covered for you on this. We will speak and say what is needed to be said. You will be asked to speak all over so prepare yourself for many journeys very soon. We are here to help you with everything. Every little thing that you wish is already handled, just ask us and it's done."

How It All Started

One morning the following message came forth as to how it all started. My Guides originally called this message ‘How Christ-mas Started’. I’m sharing their original title with you, but it’s up to you to decide which title resonates the best with you.

“It was a long time ago and there was not light. Then all of a sudden we combined our strengths and energies and light grew in a wondrous way. We loved it and then all of a sudden there were a number of areas that held more light than others. These areas were sparkling like diamonds. They became stars, planets, galaxies and solar systems far and near and beauty was all around, spectacular beauty. Light was growing and growing and sparkling and growing and it made us so happy. We liked it so much.

We placed our footsteps upon some of the sparkly stars and planets and from that the forms began to shape as we projected them to. Again there was beauty everywhere. So all across millions of stars and galaxies, we had placed our footprints and millions of beautiful beings were forming and taking on breathe and life. We were pleased and created guardians and protectors to watch over our beautiful little footprints that we had so lovingly created. So now time passes and things grow and evolve at their own pace and we are now back around to the consciousness of how it all began. Wonder of wonders, it brings it back to us. We are the Council of Ornack, the chancellors of all Matter - -the spirit of Amun RA – the Almighty.”

I received another message on How It Started the next day.

“As we progressed through the periods of time, many changes took place. Some of which, again, most of humanity is unaware. We have planned and projected areas of different ways to watch over and protect your race. You are all our children, you see, so of course we would do our best to protect our children from any harmful effect of anything that could possibly occur. As we said, much has happened and changed and we basically moved into the background to let you grow at your own pace.

Now the time is starting to compress itself and most of you are again unaware of what is happening. We are moving into the forefront to help to educate and elevate those of you who are ready. We are happy that so many of you are ready and are starting to understand what and who you truly are. Our hand is always held out for you, ready to assist if you will take hold. Sometimes we can even lift you completely out and over a situation before you realize anything even moved. We love you dearly and will always, always be with you, watching and helping. We are glad for this awakening and know much good is coming from this. We will all be one again very soon in complete and total love and happiness.

There are many different entities on the earth plane today and all are not here to help. However, there is no need for concern or alarm. WE are your guardians and can block their impressions and desires which could be harmful toward you. So be at ease. You are safe. Call to us, check in with us, and let us know that you understand that we are standing strong with you. That's all we need to cloak you with our impenetrable protection, your asking, your permission to allow us to help. Your free will is paramount in everything you do and through your free will your call to us is intensified.”

Trusting to Step Aside for the Discourses

I had many questions and loads of self doubt in the very beginning. My Guides keep encouraging me as they were preparing me for my very first channeling, a discourse session where I was to stand up in front of a live audience without knowing anything of what was to be said. Coming from a corporate background, my understanding of preparing for any presentation or speaking engagement is that you NEED an outline, or maybe even a PowerPoint talk through presentation; if nothing else, you need something to go by, even if its little notes held in your hand-but that was not the story here. My Guides kept telling me that everything would be alright and that all I had to do was stand up in front of this group (gulp), move my ego self aside and let them, my Guides, do the talking. I was in such a panic that I made, mind you, made, my friend Wendy sit in the first row so I could look at her and be able to tell if I was getting it right or not. Thankfully the Discourse went smoothly and it was exhilarating.

“We know that you will not have any more concerns or worries because we helped to clear and erase all your resistance. It is going from you and we know you can feel the difference. It is much easier when you just let us handle things like this for you. This is part of your experience. Connect through us and re-align and remember your true self and abilities. Now just remember to relax and just be yourself. You are part of us so nothing we have to say to this group or any group is unfamiliar to you. You already know it.”

As we have mentioned before, there is much going on and you are a major part of laying out the program and the plan of what we need to do together. Your group for any and all of your discourses will be more than happy to have been a part of this unfolding. Do not worry about the electronic equipment. All will work as it should. We are so happy that you have relaxed out about all this and are starting to smile a lot today. We like this. Smiling is a way to help raise your vibrations of which we understand you know and you need to do it more often. We will be with you as you move through your glorious day today, very close to you.

“We enfold you in our love. We are your Council.”

Another message about Trusting to Step Aside:

“Metatron is one of your higher entities and so is Ataloma of whom you have not heard. However, the name will come more familiar shortly. Attunement is a natural thing for you and we are constantly working with you on attunement. You will be hearing our voice very soon in your left ear. Your right ear is buzzing but do not concern yourself with this. Your guides are too many to mention and we are all powerful so just continue to do as you have been doing. Move yourself out of the way and we will send you our messages to help the people and always, always enfold all in our love. Love is the key to everything. Compassion is fired through love. Trust us on this. You have had experiences with your guides and with Master Jesus that are remarkable and visions with Ashtar from long ago. You are not missing anything in your abilities. Trust us and we will move forward together. We are simply here to help mankind, through you, to adjust and re-awaken to their true selves. You are our instrument as you well know from your agreement. Happily we stand with you as you move through each day. You will be very busy today and we will help with manifestation of your desires.

Again Love is the key. We know you understand that completely because you are Love itself. You do not need a diagram of sorts to know what and where your guides stand. We are all around and through you, so now you know.

And as we have said often before, WE are MANY, part of the ONE. The ONE that is ALL THERE IS; the ONE that is controller of ALL universes and galaxies. There are many of them, many different gods and ascended beings but only ONE of the Council of Ornack.”

A separate message to Step Aside

“You are more than special to us. You are an extension of us; Our Representative. Understand and recognized who YOU are and then get comfortable in the human skin covering that you are now occupying so you can give our messages to the masses. Much is to be said and there is no need for a preview. You already know the story we will tell. You are part of it, you helped create it. You are the author so relax, move the ego of human self aside and tap into us, your true being. All will be well. We enfold you in our love as we help you to move forward and get ready for this powerful day. There is much love and gratitude for you here.”

A message about ISIS

“You are a channel for ISIS most assuredly. In fact, you are a part of Isis and she is a part of you. So just relax and be yourself and all the information will flow just as it is now. You are getting stronger and better and faster. Now you just need to get louder and bolder which we will help you with. There will be messages from your guardian, Protector Isis and from the Council of Ornack. You are an extension of the Council on Earth. This will be as easy for you as this typing with your eyes closed.”

My Guides Speak again about the Discourse

“How exciting that we are all going to be together again on Saturday. We are loving that you are communicating with the ones that need the messages. Keep it up. There are others that are to come that you are not aware of yet. As for moving forward, you are doing exactly that. You have rested well the past couple of days and now we will go to work. There will be a lot of information coming to you but you can handle it fine. We will buffer it in ways that you will not feel tense or intense. We are the Council of Ornack and we will be giving the discourse. Much will be said about the earth plane and its coming changes. Others are preparing now and we will be raising the vibrations of all who attend and all who hear the messages so they will be prepared also.

“There is nothing to fear or worry about. This will be a smooth transition because we will be with you. Trust us, believe in us, and call to us, as we have said often. Nothing can harm you. Remember all is a dream, an illusion that you see around you on the earth plane. Once you remember that, you will be in the correct perspective to handle what is coming.

“Your dream is as you make it. Everyone’s dream is as you make it to be. So make it where you are happy, enlightened and joyful. We will help. Imagine a beautiful perfect world. Oh wait, that’s what you already have; you just haven’t imagined it like that. It’s all on how you focus on something that makes it beautiful or imperfect. It’s up to you, your impressions, your ideals, and your perspective.

*The old saying about the glass is half empty or half full.
We say there is a beautiful glass and put in it as much as you want.”*

We are Ramtha

These following message were give to me over a period of a few months.

“We are grateful for the opportunity to speak with you. We want all to understand and know that we are loving energy from source and have been channeled by others before. There have been instances in the past where the channeled energy becomes blocked and mis-information has been set forth. We are always guiding, loving and benevolent beings with much love for every one of humanity and all other creations on earth and in other realms, of which there are many. We are happy to always be with you and are constantly enfolding all of you in our love. Please do not take our words lightly. They are powerful words, we are powerful beings and love is the most magnificent power of all. We enfold you in our love as we take our leave of you now.”

Message from ATON, Ramtha and Others

“We are with you dear ones. We are always glad to be of service. We understand that most of humanity has questions about their life and life force. We are able to help with answers for this. We are all loving, all knowing, higher vibrational non-physical energies directly from source energy. We have been watching and waiting for the opportunity to help who ever asks of us. Please know that we only have the truest, deepest, most unconditional love for all of you and we are here to serve and help you. We love you immensely and are always willing to offer our loving guidance. We are ATON, Ramtha and many others. We are waiting for you to ask, we will always be here for you.”

Lady Master Nada and the Great Divine Director

“We are wanting to say to you today that there is much love for you here always. We have been working to elevate the vibration of the earth so the energies of love that is flowing toward each and every one of you is felt. As we continue to do this work you will begin to notice a difference in the way you interact with others. This is a blessing to you and all mankind to treat others from a pure, honest, clear, clean heart space of love and light vibration. If you make an effort to remember this each time you have interaction with others, your vibration will be raised and your interaction will have positive results for yourself, the person you are interacting with and with the collection of consciousness as a whole.

“This is our wish for you, to notice the little things that remind you to act from the sacred heart loving space that is the true you. You are part of all love. We are Love. We all are connected through the magnificent power of Light and Love.”

ATON- They Stand Ready to Assist Through Love

“We are so grateful to spend time with you today. We have much to say for those that will listen and take our messages to heart. We are always here, ready to assist in any way necessary. That's our job. Your job is to call to us so that we may assist and ease your way. Just a thought to us will send out a call and we will stand ready for your asking. Without your call to us, we can do nothing. Free will is yours and if you rather continue doing everything on your own without our help is a choice only for you. We are willing and able to ease so much from you if only you remember to call to us and ask for our help and guidance. We love you immensely and have always loved you so. We are here to help you out of the immense, unconditional love. Love is the key to everything in the world. We send this message today with all our energy and completely enfold you in our love and light. This message IS important so please take our words to heart. We are here for you and have always been from the beginning of time. One day soon all will know and understand this fully.

“We are one with the Universe, one with Source energy and one with the All, the Mighty, the One. We are part of you and you are part of us. We are all so connected through spirit. We are many names but for now, we will just call ourselves ATON.”

Free Will and Control

“Free will is of the most extreme importance and anything can change in your destiny that you wish because of free will. We are powerful beings with many abilities but without your call to us and your belief, trust and faith in us, we can only stand by and watch as you try to figure things out for yourself. Nothing is done of yourself you understand however ego is an enormous power to overcome. You do have free will but control is another matter. They are not the same thing at all.

Control is when you forcibly want and need to make something happen that even could be harmful to another. Free will is part of your Higher Self and there is still a guidance system in place with it. Your Higher Self will never allow something of a harmful nature to affect another. It can only affect you. So there is a difference you see. We are telling you this because we feel it is important to understand the differences and we know so many of you are confused about this. Free will is a very powerful tool and you have your free will to ask us for help and guidance whenever you wish. However, there is never any control over us that you could apply that would make us misuse our power in any way against another or anything on this planet that has been placed here for your growth experiences.

We love you dearly and know you are understanding our message for today. It is a powerful message and please re-read our messages as often as you wish allowing the understanding of these messages to become second nature.

We enfold you in our light and love as we stand back waiting for your calls. We are always here you see, on the ready. There is much love for you here.

We are ATON, Master Kuthumi, Master Jesus, Lord Lanto, Maitraya, Lady Master Nada, Isis, and the Christ Spirit that is connected to all.”

Angels, Angels, Angels Everywhere

“We are the angels from the realm of God’s throne and we are grateful that you can hear us. We are called the Principalities and we are very busy all the time. We guide humanity into becoming their true selves and help them to awaken to the fact that we are with them. We do a lot that most are unaware of. When light workers are called to unite, and special focused energies of light are sent forth as has been happening with the healing of Egypt, we are put on alert and brought into the forefront so the ones who have the sight can see that we are there to provide the needed assistance to strengthen, hold and intensify the lights strength and power, and sustain it totally until it’s work is complete. We are around humans all the time and some can see us and some can hear us but most cannot do either. We are large, have huge wings and they are of a golden color. We are unisex meaning we are both sexes perfectly balanced in our forms. We are complete as we are.”

Release Resistance and Allow

“We are Askara-Ray. This is the first that we have come that you have allowed us to speak. We are part of the ancients from way, way, before any of the ancients are even named or known. We are part of the beginning, you see. You received information through ATON earlier that it is Askara-Ray speaking to you so you would become familiar with the name and energy. Again it is different from any name you have heard before. Our galaxy is not anywhere near here. It is many, many, many light years away; however, since you are a multi faceted light being, a part of you are always there with us. So you have the ability as all humans and all of us, to instantly be wherever you need to be in the cosmic. At any given time you can be in more than one place at once, very simply.

We have come to let you know that things are going to change again very rapidly. Part of what is going on in the earth plane now is just a precursor of what is coming. The humans that are on the earth plane, we are watching how they are handling these little tiny different, unusual nuances that they do not expect. What will come, and very soon, is something major that they don't expect either. So your job is to remind everyone to reach back inside of themselves and become; just as you had the impression when you were going through this last attunement earlier this evening, and you saw for yourself, as was written in the book from St. Germain, the big white tiger coming up upon the person sitting on the land. And that person at this time was you. Your thoughts were two fold; to be frightened, or sit calmly and send love and non judgment. And if you are to be the meal for this beautiful animal that is crouching, approaching you very viciously, then so be it. Sending love, you allow yourself to be the meal. And on the other part, the same time, sending love, you suggest to the crouching tiger that possibly you could be of help to him finding other meals instead of just devouring you at any moment. Once you came to the decision, the conclusion of whatever will be will be, stopped any resistance, only sent love, is when the tiger came and laid down beside you. Where you could scratch behind his ears and put your head in his fur behind his neck, love on him and pat on him, returning love, each one of you, to the other.

This is what you need to remember when things start to be a little different in your world and the world of the others that you live with here on this plane. Set yourself down, reside yourself to the fact that whatever it will be will be, release resistance, and just send love. Even though there are two options, release resistance on both, send love; and you will be surprised with the outcome. This is a very important vision that you experienced a very important impression. You need to keep this impression with you. You need to share this impression with others. It is a great lesson here, a very great lesson. So in the midst of all the turmoil, any turmoil that you have, any, anything that you view that is detached from you or you cannot send it love and you cannot view it unconditionally; it's the same as the approaching crouching tiger that is danger. It can be easily changed as you easily change your thoughts, your vibrations, your feeling, your impressions and your ability to accept, release and send love. Love is the most important thing.

As Askara -Ray we will step away from you now, but we do believe you understood our message. We thank you for the time you spent with us and we send you our love.”

Are We Alone?

“This is a message for all light workers and spiritual seekers. We are with you all and are always close to you as you go about your daily activities. All of humanity are spiritual seekers in one way or another.

We are glad to be of assistance whenever you allow us to be part of your lives. We are careful not to interfere with anything you are doing as you have your wonderful free will to manage and control things in your life as you do. There are times, many times that humanity puts itself through so much anguish because somehow in all the business of daily living, the simple call to us has been forgotten or pushed back from the consciousness with the thought of ‘I can do this alone.’

We just wanted to remind all that you are not alone, you are NEVER alone. Even when you are not asking for our help or even thinking about us, you are not alone. We are standing with you eternally. You cannot be alone if you tried. When you feel that aloneness, know that feeling is only coming from your ego based thinking, not from your heart center. When you really concentrate, get quiet and focus on your heart center for just a little while you will sense all your guides and your higher self there connecting you to ‘all that you are.’ You are so expansive that you could never be alone, ever. We are complete and totally unconditional love and when you focus inside your heart center you will feel it. This love that is so encompassing, so protecting, so soothing and so nurturing that there is no room for ‘alone’ feelings.

We ask that you remember this and that you take a few moments daily to place your attention, calmly on your heart center, breathe and relax. You will find us there with you, with our arms outstretched sending you love. With arms outstretched we are welcoming you to the truth that YOU ARE LOVE itself. You are a reflection of all of our love in totality and completion. You are not alone and You are the epitome of Love.

We thank you for listening to our message today and we anxiously await your calls to us for assistance with any of your needs or desires. We are the Christ Consciousness, the Collective of ALL THERE IS, we are a part of YOU, you see. We are ONE. Know you are so loved and we are here for you.”

You are Becoming ONE Again

“We are grateful for the time you spend with us and we would like to first say thank you from us and from those among humanity who read these words channeled to you. You are an important part to get our messages out to the rest of the planet

Time is coming now soon and many changes will be upon all on Planet Earth. As these changes start to arrive, we ask that you keep yourself calm and balanced. Keep your emotions and mind in a calm space and do not let what you see or what you hear either from yourself or from others, effect you in such a way that you are pushed off balance. Keep your center core aligned with your higher self and keep your mind and focus on us, the ascended beings of light that are coming in mass to assist each and every one of you. We love you so dearly that we put you first in all our desires, wishes and our attention. We know that you do not do the same with us but we understand and we love you regardless. Nothing you could ever, ever do would change our eternal love for each one of you reading these words.

We are your family, your true, light family from the God source. We were all together when you were created and we will always be all together through all the different lifetimes, trials, tests and traumas that may occur and have occurred in the past. We hope you are feeling the power of our words; the power in the strength of our love for you.

We are happy to be of assistance whenever you call and we are anxiously awaiting calls from you constantly. We have much that we can offer you in the way of easing your pain, worry and troubles. Please let us offer this to you and you accept it. As time move onward each day, so does the vibrational rise of Mother Earth and soon all will be experiencing different sensations within the body that were not experienced before and you will wonder what they are and from whence do they come. We say, your bodies are made of light, of energy and each change, each little escalation of vibrational energy is noticed by your bodies. It is sometimes noticed consciously and some time it is noticed unconsciously to you, but it is noticed. And it has and will change you in little subtle ways. Sometimes you will catch yourself thinking something that you would not have even considered before and wonder, why. Often you will eat something that you never eat and again you wonder why. And then some of you will say things that once you have spoken them, you will wonder, what that was about and where did it come from.

“All is coming from your higher self. You higher self is coming through more and more as each little vibrational shift is felt in your light body. This is not something to be alarmed about. This is something to rejoice about. You are becoming one again. Back to your wholeness and perfection you had attained before the fall. We are happy to share this information with you today and ask that you read it over and over until you can sense a quickening inside your deepest heart, your spirit heart. You will sense it.

We love you and remind you that we are here for you always. We are ATON, Amun RA, ISIS, the Light Guardians of Planet Earth, the Oneness from ancient times and we are all Members of the White Brotherhood of Ascended Masters Understanding and Presence.”

You are the Masters of the Universe

We have said all this before over and over again and we will continue to say and send our messages of love to you for eternity because we will never tire of telling you that we love you, we are here for you, to call to us for help and that we have the ability to ease so much off of and away from your human way of thinking that you would be so totally in awe and live in complete bliss with our understanding of all things.

We fathom that you are of the mindset that things must only be applied in a certain way however we are aware of so many other ways to apply and achieve what your narrowly visioned mindset wants to achieve. You make things so hard on yourselves and we realize that this is part of why you chose to come to the earth plane in the first place. However, part of the original plan was for you to find your way back to the understanding and the realization that was so powerful which you left behind when you incarnated upon Mother Earth. Now that the planet is shifting so miraculously and the veil of illusion is thinning more and more each hour, as time is put in human thought framework, you are coming closer and closer to the alignment of your whole being and the veiled impressions are starting to lose their power over you.

We are working from our dimension to help you understand more and more clearly that there is so much more waiting for you. So much more that you have already created and completed and left behind waiting for you to discover again. You have everything you could ever possibly need already finished, created, waiting and gathering momentum as it waits for you. We have been very proud watching each one of our beloved brothers and sisters as you graduated from level to level of understanding within your consciousness and your heart. We truly are very proud and are filled with so much love for you that it is impossible to describe in human terminology which would transfer the accurate emotion.

We send our information and impressions and feelings in thought form that is so powerful and instant which cannot be carried over into human words as beautifully or as quickly as we are intending our message to be. We are light energy, we are thought energy. We move, act and function with the speed of light. Thought speed is immeasurable for the range of human words and emotion that is currently understood. You will see soon as you become more and more your original light being forms again. With the movement of energies which is now being focused upon your planet, many are already understanding our messages on a much deeper level.

Everyone who reads our messages will receive the healing, loving energies which are imbued for you with our love. We work in many mysterious ways to assist you on this journey that each of you has chosen to take. You have chosen this journey because you are the strongest of the strong, wisest of the wise and have the truest hearts of all in the cosmic. You are the Masters of the Universe and we, the Ascended Masters in the Cosmic Realms are here ONLY to assist you. We are your co-workers, your agreed upon sidekicks, so to speak, your help mates upon which you can depend always and forever.”

Never Give Up! Never Give Up! Never Give Up!

We are here to tell you to NEVER give up because we can help you in everything you decided to do. We are here to assist and we have said this many time before but it is mostly forgotten.

We want to remind you that we are here to help ease your pain, your worries, your concerns and your troubles. We are also here to elevate your joy, happiness, love and good times to a level that is unexplainable if you will just allow us.

We love you beyond words and if you just once spend time with us with an open and trusting heart and mind you will experience this for yourself. We are ONLY love, you see, so that is all you will ever experience from us. We will guide you in loving, gentle ways that will make you think that maybe, just maybe, you should handle that particular problem in a different way, from a different perspective. That is what we do. We give you little thoughts, nudges and impressions of doing or reacting in a different way than the way your ego based mindset would have you respond.

We hope this is making sense to you. We are lovingly waiting for you to call upon us, all of us higher dimensional light beings, to shine the light on a new and right direction for you all the time. We can do this you see, but you have to ask. Many of you do not ask because you think that one time is all that is required but this is not so. You have free will with everything you do and it is very powerful. Asking is simple. Just ask us to come help guide you daily and we will.

It is the same that you need to do to ask for protection to surround you daily. We can do this also where only higher level light beings are guiding you every day. Without asking for the white light of protection from your higher self to enfold you daily, other vibrational energies that are not from the highest realms can influence you without you realizing this. You stand as a beacon of light and many can sense your light and want to be with you, some to even control you. Once you put on your daily white light armor of protection, so to speak, only your guides and teachers from the highest levels of the light will be able to be with you.

We love you dearly and felt the necessity of giving you these gentle reminders of calling your white light of protection and asking for us to help guide you.

As Mother Earth continues on her path of evolution, many light beings like you will experience much in the way of shifts, dizziness, ears ringing and the like. At the same time, lower energies will intensify their efforts to keep you confused and under control if they can. This is why we gave you these reminders today, to assist you in all ways possible until you yourselves become ONE with the Source of all light.

We love you unconditionally and eternally. We are Amun-RA, ISIS, St. Germain of the Violet Flame, Lady Master Nada of the Pink Ray of Love and Lord Sananda-many of you know me as Jesus the Christ.”

Light Children Everywhere Unite, Unite, Unite!!

I was at one of the Austin Soul Expo's in Austin, Texas and saw my friend, Rick Ferguson was a vendor there also. He said he had a message for me. He started scribbling "stuff" on this piece of paper and then he handed it to me. There were all kinds of wiggly, curvy and odd looking characters on the paper. I asked him what I was to do with it because I didn't understand what it was. He said it was the 'Language of Light,' which I replied; "Okay but I can't read that." He stuck the piece of paper to my forehead and said something like 'blah, blah blah, this message is for Madalyn and she can read it perfectly," and then turned and walked away, leaving me confused and in shock with the scribbled paper.

After a few days I picked up the paper again and started to mediate with it and this is the message that came through. You know, we in human form, are amazing creatures with abilities far from our understanding or imagination.

"Connect through your crystalline bodies to the crystalline grids and tubes that sent you here to Mother Earth. The more often you all can connect the stronger your powers will become in all things that you do in your regular lives. Know your regular lives are nothing like the life work you each do as you return to your positions when you're physical bodies rest and your true forms, your light bodies, start and return to their work. All is so much more simple and completed easily in your light body forms.

You help others who are unaware of their true forms and are trapped and caught up in the stronger veil of illusion. You are here to help the lonely and lost children who need your love and comfort so much. You are here to hold the light energy across Mother Earth that helps to dissolve the strong negative vibrations that are constantly regrouping to hold their position of which they have controlled for so long of a period of times, and we mean times, many times over.

You are there doing exactly what is needed of you my beautiful Children of Light. We are so grateful in your assistance of us, for all this and so much more that you do unaware.

Also know that the Angelic Realms, All the Beings of Light, All the Masters of the I Am Consciousness, of the Christ Consciousness and of the Interplanetary Brotherhood are at your sides sending so much love, power, knowledge, understand & strength constantly. All you need to do is accept, recognize and thank. We are honored to assist in every way we can. In all ways which we can and in helping you to discover ways in which you can handle on your abilities.

This is our greetings and gifts to all the Children of the Light; to know you are loved, honored, assisted and thanked. Adoni Adoni Adoni. All is One United.”

This is what's next. Let our messages tell the story.

As I was writing this book, I was awakened very early Sunday morning with the strong question of what comes next, followed by why am I awake now? Here was the message I received in answer to my questions.

“No need for fear in the upcoming changes. Let people know about fear and love and to change their vibration away from the fear of the unknown to the love and gratitude that come from knowing that we, ALL the Ascended Hosts and Legions of Light, are here because we love you and are so excited to see these changes come. These are changes that will propel mankind into the truth of their powers, the truth of themselves. The truth that they have evolved to the fifth dimensional being and beyond from which they began so long ago that it had been forgotten.

We are so happy that you will now remember all of what you are and do. This is a time for celebration, not for fear. We are celebrating and are looking forward eagerly to the time when we all can be together side by side. A time when fear is no longer in control of the human ego. A time when love is shared by everyone with grace, respect and gratitude. This is the time you have been waiting for. This is the time that abundance is abound in every aspect of your life so much more so than you could possible imagine. We are extremely happy, and excited to welcome you home to YOU.

We know to some who read this they will think, okay – whatever. And we say that you will see. Just be patient and you will see. You don't have to believe anything we have said but your inner self, your high heart will feel our words and know the truth. A change will begin to happen that you will be unaware of and it will be nothing to fear, it will be natural and easy. You will not even notice it most likely except for a little fluttering in your heart center. That is to be expected so just breathe and smile through your little butterfly fluttering in your heart center as you close your eyes to relax for a few moments.

You have just experienced another physical and non-physical (shift) which we helped to monitor so you would be better prepared for your new 5th dimensional existence. All is in perfect divine order and timing and you will become complete again. Your DNA strands that were limited to two for the third dimension existence will be least twelve strands in your fifth dimensional form of love and light. You will be able to send your thoughts telepathically and you will be able to move from place to place with such ease. You will also be able to create from just your thoughts anything that you need or would like to have each day. You will be so exceedingly joyful, happy and full of so much love for everything and everyone.”

Part 2:
Understanding the Earth's Divine
Feminine

Message for New Year's Day 1-1-11

“This is the beginning of an amazing time for earth and its inhabitants. All is unfolding as it should and we are here watching, guiding and protecting every motion. We have been doing this for many eons and by now all of humanity should be aware of us in some sort of way or another. Before too much longer all of humanity will know of our existence in many different subtle and not so subtle ways. Each one will have their own special way of knowing and understanding what we are helping humanity to grow toward. Times will begin to move very rapidly from here forward. In fact, this rapid movement has already begun a few months back and some had sensed this. We are extremely happy to be a part of the new Earth that is coming nearer and nearer every day and to be an active part in the awakening that is happening. We ask that you simply call to us whenever you feel a little off balance or out of sorts with this rapidly changing energy and vibrations that will be surrounding you daily. We will help to ease your feelings so you are more comfortable. We also ask that you remember that we are your guardians so we will not let anything harm you in any way during these shifts that are coming. We love you immensely, every one of

you. We are always here for you at any time you are in need. Simply call, we will respond quickly.

We enfold you in our love as we are with you and observe your enjoyment of this blessed day. Do not be fooled to doubt these messages. They are truly from us the Ascended Masters We are many but among us speaking today are Kuthumi, Lady Master Nada, Lord Lanto, The Maha Chohan, Commander Ashtar, Sananda (Master Jesus), the Archangels from our realms of love, peace, justice and wellness, Amun Ra, The Ornack Council and the Great I Am.”

Many of us were sending healing energies to Egypt during the trying period of time during the Revolution that started January 2011. The following messages from Amun-RA, the Egyptian Sun God, were very specific on what was needed to help the best we could. These messages not only apply to that time of the Egyptian Revolution, but also for any disturbances that occur across our planet.

Amun-RA Speaks about Egypt

“I am Amun-RA. We love Egypt as much as you do. It is all of our homeland, so to speak, for most of us in our realm who wished to be part of planet Earths development. It is also the ancient homeland of many of who are in human form at this particular period. We are helping to restore the balance that the planet must have in order to raise itself into its higher dimension that it is preparing to do. All will be settled soon and as we have said in past discourses, soon to us can be twenty minutes or two hundred years, but soon, very soon. Please, please relax about all of this. Your job is to send love, healing, and blessed energy to the planet and to that area of unrest at this time. Your job is also to remember to call to us for assistance and to strengthen and magnify the positive energies and vibration you send out in a concentrated focused effort to help ease all involved in this situation.*

Remember, do not allow yourself to think any negative thoughts, any limiting, and blocking thoughts or allow any disturbing energies of overwhelming sadness overtake you. Call to us through your free will and allow us to hold your hand to ease away any thoughts that are not of the highest good for all. Energy and vibrations through thoughts, single and especially combined thoughts, are projected into the cosmic and become manifested matter. These thoughts, depending upon your thought ideals, will either help to heal the earth or be reflected back poorly upon you, the thought sender. We are all loving and have unconditional love for all upon this planet and in the many galaxies we are working with. Every being upon the earth plane at this period is already a master of creation so the thoughts are extremely important. We cannot stress this enough.

For many, the veil is drawn so tightly that they are unaware of their master abilities and status but for many others they understand their powers and can instantly heal and manifest health,, wealth, and blessings even upon areas such as the upheaval that is going on in Egypt now. Combine your efforts, combine your strengths, combine your thoughts and only, only think loving, healing, easing, blessing and graceful thoughts when you hear of anything about this unrest. You have the power, even from all the way across the planet to help ease any situation that you set your mind to. We are depending on you. This is part of what your job is. Part of what we have been telling you all along in past Discourses and meditations. You are light workers. Only send light, love energy to the land and to others. We know you understand the importance of this message through the guidance and acceptance of your higher self. We love you and we will be with you to intensify your blessed, protected, vibrations and energies as you send healing to the planet.”

Amun-RA Speaks of Egypt Again

“I am Amun-RA and we are going to speak about Egypt again. Many are hurt and many are lost. There is much that can be done to help these lost, hurt spirits.

Start with the light workers; unite and mention to them that they can help heal this situation and any situation that is going on around the world and the cosmic at any time. They are very powerful together. It is interesting how humanity believes in certain ideals to a fault, which most are false ideals. But when we send a message that is direct from spirit, source energy; humanity wants to doubt it and say: ‘Oh, should I follow this or not’. Well, of course, follow it.

We are all loving, all spirit and all grace. We are here to help as are you. We are beings of immeasurable power but so are you and together there is nothing that cannot be changed, adjusted or created as it should be. The evolvment of this planet depends upon it. More and more changes will be coming so now is the time for the light workers to really unite and sent their combined energies out to the cosmic to help hold the vibrations of upliftment and healing, as we are doing the same.

You are not separate from us. You are part of us incarnated on the planet to hold points of light as we hold points of light in the cosmic to make a complete surrounding grid of light. Do you understand?

You, the light workers, and we light beings, are supposed to work together. That was and is the plan. That is our job together, all of us.”

We are the Light Brigade

“We have much to share with humanity about what their assignments will be. We have been part of this earth plane for a long, long time, ever since its first existence because without us the light would not be around so prominently.

Our job as the Light Brigade is to constantly flood light to every corner and crevice in the cosmic and to all its inhabitants. We take our job very seriously. The light is what carries the life force of the creator through to each and every one of you and to each and every particle of the cosmic. We want all to know that when troubles arise, no matter what they may be, if you remember to enfold it and seal the troubled issues in a bubble of light there is always a clear view coming toward you as to the best way to handle or move forward from the trouble.

We hope you remember that light is everything that makes energy move. Love is the glue that makes it stick. Does this simplify if for you? We are totally and completely light and love and we are honored to be of assistance at anytime. Just ask for our help or just call for the light and we will be there in force to easy and change the problem.

Thank you for taking the time to allow our message to come forth. Now those who take the time to read it will understand things even more differently because of the vibration that is place upon these very words that are written.

“We will move off to the side for now... Aka Shaw Aka Shae2... Blessings to all”.

² These words were new to me, I have not heard them before, possibly the language of light.

Message about Upcoming Shifts

“Hello, dear one. We are here as always. It is time for us to buckle down and get to work. We have much that must be said and shared with others about the upcoming changes in your beautiful planet.

Now things are shifting daily. They are mini and micro shifts, most of them but some are major. So please do not be alarmed when you hear of such things. We are controlling and watching every little vibrational change that is happening constantly.

I am AmunRA and know of what I speak. Humans have the tendency to complicate, exaggerate and confuse the simplest of messages so I will help to make this as plan as possible. We are watching and taking care of this planet. We have assistance from you as light workers and from other Beings of Light who have embodied as humans at this momentous period for earths transition. All is moving into place for this transition and all of humanity is a major part of it. We have assigned different missions to many of you and when the time comes, you will be activated and will be able to perform your work effortlessly.

There is no need for concern or worry as we have said many times before. We would really like for you to understand this most important part. There is no need for concern. Just remember that love in your heart is all that is required and the only things that we can sense from any point in the cosmic at any given time.

Love is a major light force and protects and eases any and many situations that could possible arise. We are standing side by side with you, toe to toe and holding your hand through every phase of this transition. Please remove doubt, worry, upset, fear and disbelief from your mind and from your vocabulary. These only cause you more confusion. Your heart center is pure and strong enough to give you the correct guidance in anything that you do daily. Tune into that. Listen to your heart center, to your core being. All the answers will come to you and you will not have room for any of the worries we mentioned.

We are all one. We are so connected that we cannot even tell you how or begin to explain to you in a way that would be understood properly of the many ways in which we are all connected. The energy field is so much more than you can imagine with so many more abilities than is given credit to at this current time. All will be revealed before too much longer and you, each one, will perfectly understand what we mean when we say we are all connected as one. Continue to send healing love and energy thoughts to all of the surface of this planet. Your combined thoughts and efforts are making a great change happen for the better.

We thank you for the time you have spent with us today and we are, as always, here at your side. We enfold you in our love and are always ready for your calls at any time. We are AmunRa, Master Jesus, The Light Brigade, St. Germain, Lady Master Nada, Askara Ray, Mother Mary, The Cosmic Consciousness, Commander Ashtar and all the Beings of Light from the White Brotherhood that are always here with all of humanity.”

Current State of Affairs with the Planet

“If we must say something about the current state of affairs with the planet, know that most of these natural disasters are not natural nor are they disasters. All has been co created by humanity and we are just doing our part as was planned and prepared for the earth’s elevation.

Please let all know and remind them to only send loving energy and compassion and blessing out to all areas of the planet. Love is the strongest force that overcomes anything. People cause problems and love irons them all away.”

Messages from Metatron and the Fairy Realm

Metatron's Message:

"We understand there is much going on for your planet. We are part of this to help raise earth vibration to become the light form that it is to be. All on the planet will experiences shifts and changes either massively or subtly but all will experience these vibrational shifts and they will continue through and past 2012. As we have consistently reminded to all who will hear, as these changes occur and you become aware of them, please, please, only view them with love in your heart and with the knowingness of all is well, because it is.

As this transition and it's occurrences become more and more frequent you will catch yourself trying to add fear and worry to the cosmic consciousness which will only create more turmoil. But if you stop yourself from projecting off fear and worry and grief and change your projection to love, gratitude and understanding and allowing for all things to follow their chosen path, you will feel an ease in your heart center and you can then send that ease and love and gratitude feeling with true emotion out to the cosmic consciousness and the collective will transfer that vibration back to the planet.

We hope you are understanding this. We are not saying that you do not have sadness and are missing any loved ones who could be a part of this change. We are simply saying that they have not left you at all. Their spirit is never gone and they are now in a happy blissful state and able to assist in sending love and healing energies back to those of you still on the earth plane and to the earth itself.

We are Metraton and all the Beings of the Light Brigade and we are here to ease and assist in this transition. Please heed our words and remember that love is the only key to purity.”

Fairy Messages:

“We are of the fairy realm and we know that we have much work to do to replace the negative vibrations and the sorrow energy that has encapsulated the earth. We are very powerful and our work is extremely important to help return happiness and healing energies to our (charges) we could say; all the vegetation, flora and fauna here on earth. We are happy to do this and we want to ask for your, mankind’s, assistance. Please replenish what has been depleted. Please replant, re-nourish and revive Mother Earth.

Go into your yards, your ground spaces, your mountains, all the places that you can go and stand in quiet gratitude for a few moments. Send love energy and healing to the earth plane and we can then take that “extra” loving energy and apply it to what we do. Things will improve rapidly if all could allow themselves to take just a few moments as often as you can to do this.

We are grateful for your love and your help and we will be flitting around doing our work and some of you could even see us. And when you do, just smile and send us your love and we will return it to you more than ten fold. Blessing to you all, dear spirits of Earth.”

Changes Still Coming

“We are wanting to discuss some situations that are happening in your world today. We are sorry that things will need to get a bit worse for humanity before it will evolve to a betterment. We are always on the ready to be available for the calls when they are sent to us but we are in a state of waiting for your calls. We have mentioned often that we are here for your assistance and your comfort but most of humanity are still not remembering how important this is. We ask that you just simply put a thought on us during the day and you will have an instant sentinel by your side whether you feel us or not, just know that we are there. We have much love for you and your planet earth and for you so we are holding to our words. Call to us and we will always be to your side. We have powers that are not even revealed as of yet from which we could help tremendously if you will allow.

We are multidimensional beings of light in non physical form direct from source energy of all that is so our abilities are very vast. The more you start to recognize that we are consistently with you every day and night, the more you can remember to call to us, the more your life will begin to smooth out. Just try it, you will see.

We know that much will be changing across your planet with the governments of several countries and there is no need to worry. Only know that all is in its proper order and we are stationed at our positions to lend understand, support, love, healing and light. Always light. We are grateful for those of you who do call to us daily. From your efforts, positive changes are occurring so we ask that you continue with your practice of calling to us and speaking with us as often as you can. We are here to enfold you in our love at all times. You can do no wrong you see. You are all creators yourselves and with that being said, we hope you realize just how powerful you are on your own.

We are only here to assist and to help you remember and return to your true abilities and powers. We are grateful that we have been allowed to help. We enfold you totally and complete with our love as we continue patiently to wait for your visits and your calls.

We are the White Brotherhood, the Cosmic Council, the Maha Chohan, the Eternal Flame of Freedom and the Ultimate Power of All There Is.”

Active Participant in the Upcoming Shift

“Everything is going as planned on the earth plane at this moment. All of you are part of this evolution and all will be an active participant in the shift prior, during and after the solar eclipse of the planet. We are here to assist and once the time comes we will be able to measure your energetic and auric fields as to which new level we will need to escort you to. All levels are different. However, all are part of the same, but different. We will handle this for you so no worries on your part. As times becomes more and more intense, just hold tight to your (knowing) that all will be fine and as planned. Hold a thought of love projected toward us, your guides and ascended masters, and we will send out our hand to give you the boost that you will need. Look for it. We will be present, do not doubt it. Many others will be present also so look for us, your guides from the light.

Focus on nothing else except placing your intention on love and on those of us from the light. You can practice this now. Whenever you hear some upsetting news that has you really in a low place, close your eyes and think on us. Stay quiet in that calm space and carefully wait for a feeling, a smell, a sound, or even a thought or a picture flash from us. Once you feel that you have raised your vibration to a point that we are connecting with you, ask us for help, guidance, ease and comfort. Hold yourself in this quiet space for as long as you can and when you come back to physical consciousness, just know that we have paved the path for something to help ease you in many ways. Just wait again, send thanks and gratitude from you mind and then go about your daily activities.

It is our wish that you remember this simple guideline and use it at any instant you feel the need. We love you dearly and we will be with you always. We are Lord Maitraya, Master Jesus, The Ancient Ones from inner Earth, Master Kuthumi, Askara Ray, Ra and Isis the Golden.”

Message from Our Lemurian Forefathers

“Greetings to All. We are here to advise you and to welcome you to your home which you left long ago.

The time has come that we will be returning to the surface of the earth and walk among you in the fifth dimension vibration. We are excited to see the return our long missing family members, just as you are excited to see our return. All of you, and all of us, have been waiting for this time period for many thousands of eons, and now it is soon upon us.

This is a time for celebrations, joy and excitement. This is not a time for worry and anxiety. All is well and just remember to keep your focus on your heart center of love and compassion and you will be in the correct vibrational space that you can see us when we start to return. We are your loving family that has waited for you for so long now. We are your true root structure, your heritage, your ancestors of ages past but we will be with you in the present also.

Wonderful things go on in the fifth dimension that you will love seeing. Your thoughts instantly create your environment. If you want to have a particular home, you must think of it, in very exact detail and it will form for you out of the ethers. All things are formed in this manner in the fifth dimension. The earth and all of its inhabitants will be in such glory and peace from this dimension.

There will still be activity in the third, current, dimension but not as it is now. Everything will be different then what you see now in your current third dimension reality. Much will change for you and very rapidly.

“We have come to speak with you today to give you hope and send you our undying love. Things are not as dull as they seem. We are here to help soften the blow as much as we possibly can and many light workers and ascended light beings have already been doing this for some time now. Take heart and take heed.

Watch your thoughts that are of negative vibrations and begrudgingly fashion. Once you discover that you are thinking in a way that you know is not from your higher self of unconditional love to all, do your best to correct and change your thought. If someone makes a statement to you that is against your understanding belief structure of holding positive vibrations of love and compassion, make a mental note to cancel that thought from your mind and release it to the light where it can be dissolved and reconstructed into a powerful positive thought form that will then roam freely across the surface of the planet effecting all it comes into contact with now in a positive manner.

We hope that you can see and understand what we are saying here. Your thoughts are so powerful; please take note of them all the time. They are not just nonsensical chatter in your head. They will actually either create good or they will create damage for you and all others.

We are part of the group from the ancient city of Lemuria speaking with you today and we thank our beloved Saint Germain for helping us to make this contact this day. We are grateful to him, to you and to our channel. We shower you totally and completely in our love as we excitedly participate, wait and watch for the time to come when we will all be together again.”

Not A “TRUE” Face

“Things are not as they seem at this time. It is tragic and devastating that humanity is only seeing current happenings and taking them at face value. This is not a (true) face you see so why would anyone be satisfied with taking it at face value.

The death of any human, loss of any life before their time is tragic. We understand that in you, human mind, have a division of (good) and (bad) guys when in reality all are from the exact same source energy of light and love. The human shell that one puts upon their spirit body when an incarnation is chosen is only for the karmic lessons and path that must be experienced, recognized and then moved forward from. No good or bad here; only chosen karmic lessons and opportunity for spiritual growth and development.

We hope this is making sense to you and you are able to read these words without any personal judgment or feelings of right or wrong, good or bad, offensive or defensive. It is none of these or all of these depending upon your perspective and level of understand of the universal laws. All will be righted for Mother Earth, her children and her inhabitants, and only a clear mind, vision and fortitude will show the success that is ready to be won.

As our time grows shorter and shorter, our messages become stronger and stronger. This is another wake up call. Please wake up before it is too late to do so. You cannot say we have not warned you often. In fact, over and over we have mentioned things to be on the lookout for and we would be very happy if you were able to do so.

As always, we are at the ready to answer your questions, help you to understand the view from your higher self perspective, as we see it, and to send you our undying, unconditional love. There are many messages, messengers and channels and we simply say, see where the common denominator is in all the messages and follow that. You will find a common thread of love, compassion, and the outstretching of our hand to offer any help that is needed. We are glad you will read this message and we thank you for doing so. The energy placed upon these words is powerful enough to begin to make an impact and a difference if enough read them.

We are St. Germain of the Violet Flame, Lady Master Nada of the Pink Ray of Love, Lord Sananda, the Christ Consciousness Deliverer, Lord Lanto of the Golden period of times, Askara Ray from the Akashic records and St. Jude, Patron Saint of Protection.

We, all of us and you, are travelers on a mystical journey of adventure, excitement, love, happiness, joy and bliss. Don't stop midstream. Don't stop until you discover your truth. It's always with you, deep inside. Let that part of you soar with us and you will discover all you ever need is already prepared and waiting for you to just open your eyes and heart to see it. We love you dearly."

The Lovely Earth Star

“I am Metatron and your vibrational thought of me has brought me forward to speak with you today. I am also part of the group of the Ancients and as always we have been close to Mother Earth and its inhabitants for eons; for such long periods of time that we cannot even try to count in numbers. The most important things I would like to share with you today is that it is true.

The Earth star is raising her vibrations. All occupying space on the lovely Earth star is having a raised vibrational effect of feeling somewhere or somehow within their individual bodies. We just want to say that if you focus on your breath, in and out, calmly, focus on your breath and bring yourself back into that focus of your center when you are experiencing pain of that disconnected feeling or that feeling of something odd. Focus on your breath to calm yourself and connect with your inner Divine guidance, the ill effects will be eased from you. Do this as often as you need. Each time you catch yourself feeling pain or out of sorts so to speak, focus again and breathe.

This will help center you and help to release any old pent up emotions or memories that need to be removed from your physical bodies. Picture a Blue bubble descending down through your higher chakras all the way through your body and out surrounding your body and then breathe that marvelous blue light into your heart center and relax. All will be well dear ones and the ease will come to you very fast if you will allow yourself to do this simple practice.

*“I and all the beings of light love you immensely and I am grateful to share this message with you today.
I am Metatron and I’m always with you.”*

Let Your Mind and Thoughts Soar

“There are many at this time who are making their final transition and we are waiting to welcome them home. Much is happening on the earth plane and much is happening in the cosmic in tandem with all these shifts and current changes that you are experience in your human forms.

Know that we are with you. We are always with you and we are here to assist in ways that you are not even aware of. We ask constantly that you call to us and from your calls we will be able to do even more to help ease and relax you through the different feelings and changes that are occurring in your bodies and on your planet and through the cosmic. Every little movement, action or thought creates another that grows in magnitude as it perpetuates upon itself over and over again. Be sure that your thoughts are of peace, blessings and love at all times. And if not at all times, change your thought to peace, gratitude and love as soon as you can catch that you are not sending out a positive vibrational thought, feeling or impression.

The human mind plays many tricks upon you but you are a light being of spirit and you are well equipped to handle these little tricks from the human ego mind once you realize your true strength and abilities and how to control yourself and all in your world. It is by thought, feeling and impressions. This is the only way that anything is ever created in your world and all around you.

We ask that you take the time to reflect upon these our words and in your heart of hearts you will recognize their truth. We have much love for you dear ones and we are always here for you in any way that you will allow us to be available and known to you. Remove all doubts and fears. Replace them with trust, love and thoughts of freedom of letting your mind and thoughts soar for the highest possible impression that makes you feel completely as if you are made of light and air. We will lift you and you will feel like you are floating and thinking thoughts that are on beautiful wings. They are. They are on beautiful wings of love from us. We love you dearly.

“We are the Captains of the Light Brigade, Commander Ashtar, Amun-RA, ISIS, Arch Angel Metatron and the Collection of all the Beings of Light from the Eternal Source of Oneness.”

Lord Lanto, Archangel Ariel and Many Others

Another Spiritual being I hear from is Archangel Ariel - powerful overseer of guardian angels and humankind who is involved with manifesting supply for humans and animals, healing and environmental concerns.

After my morning meditation, Lord Lanto, Archangel Ariel and many others shared this message:

“We are all here to help you and the beings on your planet to evolve as quickly as they possibly can. We ask that you call to us constantly for guidance and assistance because we are here just for that purpose. To guide, protect and assist any who will give a call or thought toward us. We are made up of pure love, total and complete love. No conditions, no judgments, no strings attached to our love; just pure love for you and for all of the kingdoms that are upon this earth plane and through the entire universe and beyond.

We have no expectations. All is your choice and free will so we wait and watch, wondering when you will ask for our guidance. We can so easily move everyone of you though any situation that can surface for your attention. Please ask us to come and help and we will of course always be at your side in a flash. You will sometime see us as a little spark or flash of light. When you see this little sparkle out of the corner of your eye, just smile in the knowing that it is us and we have come at your calling. This makes us so happy when we are interacting with you through the activities of your day. And if you will notice, your day goes so much smoother and is so much simpler if you have started your morning with your call to us.

We love you and we are happy to share this information with you today. We hope it has been of service to many. To the many who are already sending their love and thoughts to us and to the many who have not as yet thought they would benefit from us, we are here to say simply try it. Just give us a chance. You will see for yourself that you are a creator and you have created us to be your help mates in every aspect of this chosen journey on this earth plane. We gladly accepted this position and we always will.”

Amnesia Veil is Lifting

“As we have mentioned to you earlier, we are here to assist. Now we are needing to start sending you most urgent messages for humanity to allow or bring into their consciousness. These are important messages. 11-11-11 is an awakening of sorts for all of your planet and its inhabitants. We are from the realms of the light deities and we are always watching and caring for our beloved children, such as yourself, and all of the children on the face of the planet today. Each and every one of the earth children have decided to be in form at this time and we are here to remind all earth forms that the time is now come to re-awaken to the truth of your being, of yourself.

You are light and no matter how far into the negative vibration any one of you has chosen to merge, you are still of the light and you will be reminded of that more and more as your planets timeline moves toward and past 2012 milestone periods. Always show only loving energies toward your fellow co-habitants of your planet and remember that all has come from the light originally. The darker, negative forces are also part of the original plan to determine your strengths and fortitude to move past the test of the heavy veiled earth of which you willing chose before you left for your journey from the all source of light, the ONE.

Now much has happened to thin this veil of amnesia which covers most of you. There have been thousands of earth years passing to finally reach this level of transparency and we are assisting your new discovery or we should say re-discovery of yourself. So now just let yourself listen, learn, grown and remember your origin of your creation and we will give you these thoughts to reflect upon.

Daily we will add a little more to the thoughts for your reflection but for now we want you to remember that you are part of the ONE Source of all. YOU are all powerful and the spark of light that chose to be on earth at this time to assist in the New World Awakening Program. Earth is transforming herself into the New World and love is the breath that keeps her alive.

Love is the key to all things and we mean ALL things. Never doubt the power of love. It heals all wounds, removes all doubts and fears and is the elixir of life. You will understand more and more as your planet shifts more and more daily into her power of all encompassing love taking your vibration with her. As this happens you will shift too and start to get a clearer picture of the overall plan.

We are the messengers from the Light Brigade and we send you our eternal love.”

Enjoy Your Time Here on Planet Earth

“We are simply going to ask that you enjoy your time here on this planet. It is limited and in the big scheme of things it vanishes in the blink of an eyelash. Each day as you are caught up more and more in the veil of illusion which has been dropped over Mother Earth, you find yourself acting and reacting as if it is completely and totally real and that this is all there is for each of you to survive in. We are here to tell you it is not.

This is just a little hologram so to speak of a fragment of your life and of your beings existence. You are so much more than you are aware of and we are here to help you awaken to this deeply hidden knowledge and passion that you have and are by being a direct descendent of All That Is; of the One Source for all, your God which is replicated within you as your Higher Self. You are, each one of you, god’s walking on this earth plane.

Every place your feet touch the Mother Earth a footprint of extraordinary vibrations is left imprinted in the earth and its atmospheric field. Each movement, each thought, each and every word coming from you has this same powerful influence in the magnetic field and the cosmic. This combined consciousness is what helps some to love, heal and manifest and others to be destroyed within their own minds. This energy is pliable and mold-able and it is up to you which way you intend to mold your life and experiences to be.

We hope we have painted a clearer picture of how co-creation now works. It is a combination of you, us, the magnetic fields and your higher God self. Meditate upon these words and you will get much clearer about all of this. We say to enjoy yourself and enjoy your explorative journey that you have chosen for yourself at this time.

“We love you and are here to remind you of how powerful and expansive you truly are. We are the Pleiadians.”

We Are of the Group Called the Andromeda

“And we are very glad to be able to speak with you today. As you hear some much of late that things are happening to your lovely planet, we are simply going to mention that of course things are happening. Nothing is ever stagnant and things happen all the time.

In this case, of your beautiful planet, the things that are happening are very unique and are the result of many, many eons of changes over the course of different civilizations and different species and different star systems. This jewel of a planet of which you now occupy is the major star for all the star systems to view her miraculous changes that have occurred already and will be coming more and more in a very short time frame of earth’s timeline. New life is being born on your planet which will be the keepers of your lovely jeweled planet; new life is being born of the jewel itself.

All is coming to newness and we are present in every instance to provide support. We ask simply that you understand and recognize changes are upon you and all around you and to welcome them with open hearts. That’s all you truly need to know. Welcome all these changes with open heart centers and we and the other masters and teachers will be able to do the rest of the transformation with love and grace. We are here for you.

We are the light beings from Andromeda and we are joined by all the others of which you are not even aware of their names, but they are aware of all of you. We send you our love.”

We Want to Ask WHY?

“Why are so many humans insisting on keeping their faces covered so to speak with their heads in the sand? There is much happening to your planet now and this is not the time to continue in your veiled ideal of what is happening and what your part is during this shifting of energies. We love everyone on your planet and this is why we are asking such a strong question now. We are hoping that somehow our question will help to bring a different point of view into your consideration. We are very powerful but you in your human forms are extremely powerful also. Even in your human forms where so much of your extraordinary abilities are kept secret from your consciousness. Even with that, you have powers beyond your imagination. So we ask again. Why?”

Listen to your heart centers. Listen from your heart, not your head. The human mind is only working at a small percentage of its total capacity. Why place all your trust and belief systems in something it is not working at full capacity? Your heart however does have the capacity to work at its full ability, so we say trust your heart center. We know that you know the truth and that times are changing. This change is for the better and the extreme benefit of the planet and all upon it. The higher level light beings have been waiting for thousands upon thousands of years for this period and now it is finally here. You have helped to plan these coming changes in your light body forms. You all are part of us and part of the current changes.

We are here to continue to encourage you to breathe deeply, close your eyes, relax into your center core and listen to the messages from your heart center. They will not lead you astray. We are ultimate unconditional love and that is what we have to share with you. We know that once you truly reach into your heart center core you will recognize all this for truth and you will be aware and ready to assist in this elevated shift of human consciousness and of the planet. We say no longer is there a need to keep yourself veiled from the fundamental truths that we are speaking to you now. There are strong vibrations placed upon these words and as you read them, you will begin to make small simple shifts in your consciousness remembering this truth.

We are here for you and for all the magnificent kingdoms on your beautiful planet.”

Part 3: Divine Feminine Male-Female Balance

The Great Sphinx of Giza Speaks

I was in Egypt for the arrival of 2012 at the New Year, and before I left the United States my guides had given me instructions that I was to spend time with the Sphinx. I was guided specifically to be at the right paw of the sphinx at 11:00 am on January 11, 12 & 13 of 2012, and at the same time each day. I was to sit, listening and write the messages I would receive. On the third day after receiving the information from the Sphinx, I was to go to the ancient Isis temples at Giza and record the messages I would receive from there.

Ending with the wise words from Isis provided the balance of the male and female energies. The Sphinx carries both the male and female vibrations, and in this instance the male was prominent for these messages. I also received many ancient symbols which are noted in my transcribed pages but are not drawn here.

Day One At the Sphinx

“We are here to show you secrets never before revealed. We buried much information in the beginning and now it is time to share with all of humanity.

“THOTH, RA, ISIS, MAAT, HATHOR, SEKHMET, OSIRIS, HORUS and many more have come to your side. Relax and we will begin.

“Ancient times were so different and not as backward as most believe. We are from a very advanced civilization and our skills and abilities from that time were enormous especially compared to your skills and knowledge of today.

Never in ancient times were we unable to communicate with just our thoughts. Everything was formed with thought. Then as thousands of years passed, man's abilities became darker and we had to remove much of what we used then. We ourselves had to withdraw until the proper time when man was again ready to become their oneness of which we all are.

The ancient times of which your history speaks of is the period after we withdrew and man was again totally without any special abilities or skills. Then they had to learn for themselves what they had lost and figure a way to recover it and a connection to us.”

(Four or five symbols came through that I drew on my paper)

“Seven to nine dimensions - all more advanced than Earth, the school of experiments and tests.

I Am RA and you are my child. Never doubt the messages you are receiving. You are receiving them from us accurately.

We built this (the Sphinx and Giza plateau) to help remind you that we are you and that we were here at the time that you remembered this. There is NOTHING that we can do that you cannot do also. Just as the avatar Jesus said in his cryptic messages to the then unaware populace. 'These things and MORE you can do!'

(Another symbol came through at this point).

“One more thing, thank you for coming and believing in us and in your ability to communicate with us. Your twin flame easily understands because he has been through this already long ago. He has just been waiting for you to awaken again to your strengths, separately, alone and together.”³

³ Interesting note: I did have the shakes and tremors throughout my body as I prepared to leave and my personal escort had to support me for a while as we walked away until my strength returned and I stopped trembling.)

Day Two At the Sphinx

The second day I noticed that I had been sitting on a large stone foundation that contained some sort of writings or characters all in line order that I did not recognize and could not decipher. But it felt to me that it was some sort of words. I finished admiring the wonderful and comfortable stone platform, got comfortable, and started to receive this message.

“This is ancient writing you are sitting on. Our people hid more messages there. It is like a time calendar.

All is changing as of NOW. Use your talents to share this information and messages with as many will listen. They all need to know that much of the better is coming for them soon. Remind all to not be afraid of any message they may be receiving from now forward even if they have not received any messages at all that they are aware of yet. We will be intensifying everyone’s ability to connect with us. Most will ignore these messages unless you prepare them for this to happen.”

(A symbol was drawn.)

“We are preparing many for this work and you are one of our important messengers. All are ready to assist you as need be so please understand that many guides and guardians are near you at our requests. Keep yourself calm and listen carefully.

The ancients have already returned and they will start to make themselves known to you and those you align with for this work very soon.

“I Am RA and again I say to you that you are my daughter and we all welcome you to your sacred homeland of long ago.

Under the far side on this Sphinx here at Giza much will be discovered again. It was discovered before and then re-hidden as if nothing had been found. It cannot be hidden much longer. We will not allow this to happen.

Isis is here now and wants you to understand the importance of this truth for all on the earth planet at this time. We have always been close even though we had to withdraw. We have sent many important messengers to return to this planet to constantly and gradually begin this awakening. Much more has been said in these last several years about unexplained and unseen beings of energy. This is the final stages of the (gentle) awakening reminders. Now we come in full force, full power and glory to reveal much to the people of earth. You, or course, were sent from us along with your Twin Flame and many from your group of present friends. More will come to all of you hungry for information.

We will advise you on the best ways to start to uncover their eyes and awaken their minds. Depend upon us for this advice so the ego from the human body you currently occupy does not think it needs to do this. We are your guides for this work to be shared and experienced accurately and correctly.” (two more symbols).

“Commander Ashtar is most certainly one of your direct contacts along with us. He is, of course, with you because you are not from this planet and he is responsible for your safety while you are in the world of heavy dark vibrations.

The emerald tablets are no longer under this Sphinx but the energetic imprint is here and is what you are receiving impressions from. The emerald tablets are safely in an invisible plane and again at a time we can determine is best, we will reveal them to the visible plane. There are many invisible (over pyramids) directly covering each of the existing pyramids and the same is for the sphinx. The invisible pyramids and sphinx are so much larger than the ones that you can currently see. They all are so large that they connect into one large complex with many of us light beings walking there. You will see this soon in dreamtime and then later in physical sight.

Be prepared. Let others know as we say again, to not be afraid, as we have returned to you.

Thank you for coming and let's stop here for today but we will be with you the rest of today, tonight and forever more. We love you dearly."

Day Three At the Sphinx and Isis Temple

Early in the morning of the third day I was having a lot of trouble with my nose. It was hurting and feeling a bit stuffy. It kept bothering me so much that I was cognizant that something must be wrong with my nose, but I didn't feel like I was catching a cold, just a little troublesome stuffiness. After my shower my nose was feeling better and I hurried off to my 11:00 appointment with the Sphinx.

“Welcome back! We are one with you again this morning.

I am the Great Sphinx of Giza. I have guarded this land and its many treasures, some secret, some not, for a long, long time. My guardianship period is soon coming to a close because the duty I perform will no longer be required. This will be a wonderful day for all of humanity when this happens. I can rise up and walk the land with my brothers and sisters and all will be as it should be again. Until then, I wait, watch, protect, guard, and keep silent of the secrets I know.

I do speak. You are hearing me and as for your nose giving you a slight problem, it's just my way of saying to you 'Welcome to my world, my Egypt, my face'. See, my nose has given me a slight problem also even though we all are very serious about our work; we all have great humor within us. There needs to be humor, joy and laughter. Remember to enjoy your every breath as you occupy the human form of over cover. Joy, laughter helps you to relax and assimilate our love and messages.

I am RA and I too am here to welcome and be with you. There is no outside noise or disturbance that can stop our work with you today. Float yourself into the sounds and you will find us there smiling. The Isis temple will be ready for you when you arrive so just breathe and be with us here at the sphinx for now.

As of now, no one has noticed much change. However much has changed. Egypt rule has changed. There was a change across other countries that were much required. The period of now is only temporary. The changes will continue until the vibrations across the face of the earth planet have been raised to the levels necessary for our return without any harm to the human forms. The human forms are temporary and of which many of your messengers are well aware. It is only to contain your light bodies until the time for release is upon the whole planet.

It is time now for us to begin again, but all is well. We have been working with you and others for a long time. Even at the beginning of time this period of working together was planned. For now you are an anomaly to the people walking and talking around you but you should know that they feel the energy flowing and are not sure why they are drawn to stand by you. They want to be close to the energetic vibrations that are coming through to you, that's all."

(five symbols came through)

"I am the Great Sphinx of Giza and I thank you for coming to listen to me now. We are all celebrating you because you are here and doing as your inner guidance requested. You are so loved!

The Pharaohs of Egypt bow to you as you continue with your work to awaken the people to the power and key importance of Egypt. We will all help guide and advise you. You just need to listen and when you feel upset and sad, stop yourself and turn to us. Things will become clear to you shortly after that. Your communications with us will continue when you return to your home because the connection has now become solid and permanent with us from here.”

Day Three at ISIS - Temple

(Outside ruins at the Giza Plateau - there are two other Isis temples with carvings and hieroglyphs at Giza also)

“I am ISIS and I'm so happy you have come to my temples to remember much that has been forgotten. Again much is kept hidden and secret but as you are beginning to understand, all will be revealed soon.

This temple was beautiful and still is in the invisible dimension connected here. When the great pyramid complex is shown, all of these temples will be shown also, just as they were planned in their completeness and wondrous beauty and power.

Many adepts have passed through these temple corridors and those from the past, present and future will come together at this glorious time of awakening; much happiness for all.”

(another symbol drew on the paper).

“I am ISIS and you are always welcome here in my house and in all of my houses of magic and love. See everything was situated in close proximity to everything here and there was much activity; different temples from different levels of my priestess. Much activity, learning, training and work went on here under the supervision of my most cherished high priestesses for me. They had my authority to act as I would in all cases and instances. They were honored, respected and loved and led with care and nurturing abilities. These days are to return soon, you will see.

You are enfolded in my love and I'm thankful you have come. As was mentioned earlier your connection to us will remain strong now that you have returned to your roots. Much care is given to you, your co-workers and the mission you are on. We are guiding you completely.

I am ISIS.”

Mother Earth - A Living Breathing Consciousness Speaks

After returning home from my visit to Egypt, I received these messages.

“Mother Earth is a living breathing consciousness with a heart that is alive and active. She is no different than your own Mother; she just holds a different shape other than human. Most of us don’t understand this or even want to believe it but this is an extreme truth. Our planet, that we have for so long taken for granted and have not even cast a second thought toward, is alive. We walk on her body and heart every day.

Now granted some of us have recognized that Mother Earth is a live being and have championed causes actively to help the others of us to understand this; in the past, not so successfully. However, from here forward, it will be understood by all because there will be so much evidence coming forth that cannot be ignored or denied. Open your eyes, see, really see, the beautiful planet of which you chose to live upon. She sustains life for all of us humans and she alone. She is part of the great Cosmic Beings that we so love to pray to and worship, and she has not been recognized rightfully for too long.

So now, times are changing. Consciousness of humans are rising and awakening to the idea that maybe there is more to this life than just waking up every day and going to work; or waking up every day just to go about your own business thoughtlessly of any repercussions that might occur for the earth. In fact, we have not truly even thought about anything other than ourselves for a long, long time.

This too is changing. We are evolving to the understanding that we all are ONE. We all are connected somehow, someway, even if we are not sure how. But that impression, that idea keeps returning to us over and over again; we are all part of the same One. And we wonder just how that can be but at least we are starting to wonder.

That is a huge start for most of us. Many other of us are well along the path of understand how this Oneness thing works and are very excited with knowing all the possibilities that it brings for all of humanity and all of the galaxy systems in the cosmos.

As things continue to move forward day by day, you will begin to notice certain things that you did not happen to notice before. You will happen to notice that little bird that flew so much closer to your car and send it a loving thought to be careful close to so many cars and fly a little higher. You will notice a tiny spider quietly in the corner and instead of going to swat it you will first think about saving this little life, this little energy being of which we all are a part of. So instead of using a paper to swat it, you will scoop it up on the paper and place it outside with the loving thought that it is much safer outside in nature with its mother than inside the house with un-aware humans. And it will on its merry way because it didn't want to be in the house in the first place.

I am Gaia, Mother Earth, as you like to say, and there has been much damage.”

We Are Your Gods and We Are YOU, Same, Same

“We are here and we welcome this opportunity to visit with you again as we welcome every opportunity to do so. Now we are continuing our teachings, and work with you as you are continuing to become more and more aware of You, the true you and all that you are a part of. We as your guardians and guides are always excited when you take a few moments to receive the messages we so love to share with you. Now we are in a state of change as are you. Your higher level guides are always present and so are many more that you have not recognized previously. Oh sure, you are aware of some of them but you were not of the mindset that you would be able to have them work with you. Well, they are. They are here to lead you down this next part of your journey. As for just how long that takes will be completely up to you. The more you allow yourself the time to connect with us the faster your journey to total awareness and enlightenment will arrive. We know you are understanding this perfectly.

You are being pushed further and further into the awareness of the differences of us and then still the awareness of how we are all the same. Many are extremely scientific minded, many are not. You can handle and occupy any space of any type of understanding that you so desire. Even if it is something that you previously had the thought that I’m not really interested in that. I don’t particularly gravitate toward that, such as math or science. Well, little one, the whole of the universe is the true basis and its foundation is built upon math and science systems.

Energy is consciousness and consciousness is fibrous pieces of all math and science and anything else you can think of. So of course you can handle anything that you previously felt was not in your current interest or understanding, even politics. That is a completely different type of structure here in the cosmic realms but the structure is there and set in place. We have the realms and hierarchies instilled and all this makes our world and yours move smoothly into its purposes.

We are your gods and we are you, same, same. You see. Again we are coming to the (reflection) ideal that many in human form want to discard. But we are a reflection and you of us. Just as within another human, human reflection to human. Really look at it, at all this and understand that this is how you set it up.

We are grateful for this chance to be with you and again just know that we are here all the time and we will always give you our assistance. We are at your service, literally. We step away for this now moment but we are here just waiting and watching as your go through your day.”

A Deeper Understanding of the Divine Feminine

“We are here dear child. We are always grateful that you take a few moments to spend with us. We do have much to do and we are here to help you and lead you through this process of change and upcoming new ways that you will soon be experiencing. All is well and all is as it should be. Things are moving forward very rapidly. Do not let yourself get in a quandary where you are not sure what you should do next. You know what you should do. You are already prepared. We have been giving you information for some time. Not only that, you are also aware of what your work is before you came into this incarnation as a spark of light. So we ask that you just relax...very good... continue breathing, we will begin.

It is important that everyone understands more and more about the Divine feminine and the aspects, the complete total aspects that involves. Most are not aware of that at all. They just are touting their Divine feminine banner. However you will understand this to the depths, to the depths that are more than what has been revealed to others. It is easy to say, ‘Oh yes, welcome the Divine feminine, be here the in this space, allow it, recognize it.’ And most of the masses will go, ‘Yes, yes, yes. We welcome the change. We are women. We wish to stand and be heard. We have been squelched for so long.’

This is not what the true Divine feminine is necessarily about. Yes, it is for the women. It is also for the men and most assuredly it is for the planet; for the lovely Mother Earth. She is the ultimate of the Divine feminine and she has been the one that has been the most suppressed from the pillaging and the horrendous acts that have gone on upon her surface. Mother Earth has a heart you know, and her heart has been broken many, many times. And now it has been broken to the extent that the only way to repair the broken heart is to cast off all the hurt that has caused the damage and let her renew herself. Just as a new flower buds from seed from the dead flower, it is renewed.

Mother Earth is renewing. She is awakening herself as the ultimate Divine feminine of which she has always been and has not been recognized for. Each different country has a vibrational energy and it is from the base of this vibrational energy that the Divine feminine arises. You were in Egypt the last time and you heard the words from the land you were standing on, from the land of Egypt, you heard the words 'Goddess Egypt'. Not like any other goddess that you are familiar with the form of.

This is a new concept for you to start to show and bring to others so they can understand that each country, each place on the planet, is to recognize its own Divinity. By you going to Egypt, speaking with the Sphinx, which is your brother, you allowed the Goddess Egypt land to speak back to you. This is what will happen all across this planet.

All the Divine aspects will begin to emerge and become a total Divine feminine unity of Oneness. As this happens the human body forms are going to be a little confused. So we ask that you assist them and recognize their Divineness, their true Divine feminine. It doesn't mean they have to walk around in pink, fluffy stuff and ruffles. It doesn't mean that they have to stand in their strength of Divine femininity and chop down a male ego that has hurt them in the past. It is nothing to do with this. It means that you are true. You are sending off unconditional, non-judgmental, gentle, nurturing, caring love for everything you encounter.

This is the basis of the Divine feminine, pure, ultimate, Divine Love. This is possible in the female form and in the male form. Most of the male, in human form, have blocked their love abilities because they are afraid to be hurt, have been hurt, or will not let the ego take the seat behind their heart. Soon they will have no other choice.

It is time for the male energy to understand that it is all right to show complete and total compassion and caring, nurturing love. Many of the male in human form are aware of this and can do this. And many have gotten confused and let the feminine aspect of the human ego ideal of it take over. This is fine too; however, the truest way is to just be yourself, your true Divine self with that spark of unconditional love that came with you from your original source when the Creator was with you and sent you out for your experiences.

So now, the male and female have the opportunity to share their ultimate love, their ultimate compassion, their ultimate non-judgmental unconditional love for each other and for others. This is what the planet needs. This is the joined forces that Mother Earth is looking for, and that Mother Earth is crying out for; and that Mother Earth will settle for nothing less.

We are God, You are God, and every being on this planet is God. The earth is God. Respect her, respect her God nature and respect yourselves.

We will leave this for now. I AM ISIS.”

Humanity Has to Remove their Blinders

“Yes, dear one, we are here. We are always close at hand whenever you want to speak to us, or you want us to speak to you. We are always happy to be with you. We love you dearly and we know that this work is important. We want you to go through your confusion and remove it. It is not necessary. Everything is prepared for you. Everything is lined out. You are trusting. You are believing, however, there are times when you let the doubt come through and it does throw you off. When these times happen, you may listen back to this recording (come back to read these words) and know that we are with you. We are helping you.

We have a plan. It is in agreement with what you have asked, what you will allow, and what is necessary to help the planet at this time. You have work to do you see. You are an important part in this ascension process that is going across the face of all humanity and of the globe at this time. Changes are coming. Changes are afoot. You are part of the changes. By being part of the changes, you too will have changes that may be a little daunting for you if you think about in your human third dimensional way of thinking. However, it is not daunting at all when you think about it from our stand point, which you can do very easily. You just need to get yourself back into this state of which you are currently speaking to us through; we are speaking to you through also.

This communication is a two way street you see. Ah yes, we see that you understand. So yes, changes are coming. There will be a relocation of sorts for you and Colorado will be nice for you to start with but you will not remain there. It is just a beginning. It is to commune yourself with the communities there. They are waiting for you. They are waiting for the work that you have to offer. We will help give you this work as you have requested us to do. When the time is right, everything will be revealed as it should for you.

Mother Earth is very excited that you are onboard with this mission. We are also very excited that you are onboard so to speak with this mission. As you grow and as this mission grows, the people that interact with you will also grow. You will see. You affect many lives. You affect many hearts. It is part of how you are made up of dear one. You are heart centered. You reflect out love and you are very good at this.

Chernobyl in Russia was a sad turn of events but it was necessary for humanity to start to remove their blinders as to the illusion that they carry in their minds that everything is fine. We can continue to ignore anything that is disastrous and we can continue to go about our merry way without doing anything. As you know, this is not possible. Everything was co-created with us and humans that are on the planet, all are co-creators. Not only are we co-creators, you and all the humans, also are creators of your own, in your right. This is what you are going to help people recognize; their own abilities, their own mastery, their own creator-hood, we can call it. Like mother-hood, creator-hood. We kind of like that term. It's a little different. Yes, we laugh with you.

So turn to us when there are things that are going awry in your life. We are always here. We will always listen. We will always guide you. Much has not gone awry for you. It will be smooth. You will see this. Everything will be as is necessary. Do not concern yourself with menial things. Much will be done for you and with you. You have many invisible fingers and hands and helpers. Many are at your side and many are at you aid. And we ask that you get a visual picture of that. In the next dimension where the veil is thinning, right now you are not able to see, but soon you will. There are many helping hands with you. We will help you with your mission. We will help you with your painting. We will help you with writing, your seminars. We will help you with your programs. We will help you to move things.

Remember the day when you had that huge bookcase that you were trying to move on your very own? And you got yourself caught in a position where you were stuck, really stuck and couldn't move it? You did call to us. Out of desperation, but you called to us regardless. And we always answer. And then the next thing you realized everything was done, remember? Bookcase in place, books all in it, everything lined out. When just a couple of hours previously, you were in total sheer exhaustion and stuck and could not move it through the doorway. We thought you would remember. We like it that you remember certain things like this, and we will remind you because it helps put your vibration back to where you like it to be and where we like it to be.

Change is part of life. Change is part everything. Change is evident in everything. As for your work about teaching more of the Divine Feminine and recognizing it and bringing it forth in all people, we can help you with this now. As many start to learn to grow and evolve and understand the thinking of the aspects of what all the Divine Feminine abilities carry and bring to each human so they can walk this Earth plane in complete and total love and compassion, non-judgmental, forgiveness, the more the connection is stronger with the Divine Feminine; the more the connection is stronger with all of these aspects that that energy carries. It is not either for male or female, it is for all. Things such as love, unconditional love, compassion, forgiveness is neither male nor female in origin, you see. And these are the aspects that the Divine Feminine teachings will bring. They also will help to teach humans how to tap into their innate abilities of their own intuition.

The intuition that has been so squelched, particularly in the male. The woman has lived with it for a while, right in tune with it; most women. This is why it is called the Divine Feminine, awakening and returning, because intuition plays a huge role in the new world in the path forward. Intuition is a secret inner guide, as we are your guides. We are not secret but as you term it 'intuition' this is where we talk to you secretly, quietly, lovingly, compassionately, forgivingly to guide you with little nudges along the path; along the path of life. Along the path of what is best for you, your next encounter. What would best suit you, your higher self and make your soul happy. This is all about soul awakening, soul joyousness, soul remembering and soul connection. Once you connect with your soul and the love that it carries, there is nothing to get in your way.

We are all with you. We love you. We will let you set quietly for a few moments. Take this energy in”.

Part 4: “Our Messages Are in the Essences”

Madalyn’s Guides talk about the Power of the Essences - Divine Magick as ISIS & RA refers to them.

(Taken from Discourse Excerpt December 2010)

After applying a particular Essence to each attendee as directed by the Guides and after the circle and offering of flowers from each one are placed into the vase, Madalyn channels her Guides.

ATON – Amun-RA

“Thank you. This (motioning to the flower offerings) is a token from each one of you from your heart in exchange for all the love we have for all of you from our heart. It has many, many purposes. The flowers are exquisite. The colors are magnificent. They are not all the same. They are all different and they are the same as all of you are the same, and all of you are different with the different Essence. The Essences have a high vibration that we have placed on them. This would not be the same without the work of the Essences. They are very important. You all are very important.

We want to make sure that any blocks and any delays or any confusion that has been going on in your inner self has been laid and kind of place aside right now as you have the Essences on you. That is part of their work. The Essences take over. They do things that you are not even aware that they do because of their power.”

ISIS

“I am ISIS. I am the Guardian of the Essence. It is serious, serious, serious, serious what you just heard about the power of the Essences and the power of each one of you. The Essences were sent here for a purpose. They are with the correct people they are to be with at this time and space. And they will be shared with many others. It is an AWAKENING. This is an awakening. This is a new beginning.”

(Taken from Discourse Excerpt January, 2010)

I AM ISIS

“I am the Guardian of the Essences. We always have Madalyn place an Essence on every one of you because the Essences help us to communicate better with you so that you are more freely to do your work; more freely to stop the blocks and the changes that come to you all day long that can throw you off your path. As many of you know, we have said many times before, the Essences are very powerful. We cannot stress that enough. They are not the typical, ordinary type of essence that you would think they are. We have blessed them. We have our vibration on them. They have come from Egypt, from our messenger there who has also blessed and placed his vibration on them. So they are more than triple whammied. So, of course, they are going to work without any question.”

(Discourse excerpt after returning from Egypt Journey in June 2011. I had been guided to use the RA and ISIS essence on everyone who was present at the discourse that day.)

ISIS

“I am ISIS. I am Guardian of the Essences. I want to echo my sentiments (from RA) that I am very grateful you are here. The Essences have strong power on them as you sensed when you came into the room, but you really have no idea of the power that they actually do carry. We have put our vibration on them. We have put our love in them. We have put our energy in them and we have put our healing in them. They work in ways that we cannot even explain to you. A lot of this will be experienced as different people have different things that occur with the Essences. Madalyn hears things almost daily of something new that has happened that she was not even aware of that the Essences would do; however we know. I am with Madalyn because I am the guardian of the Essences. I and Amun-RA specifically asked her to take on the task of bringing them back to share with as many people as she could. So in doing her discourses she will share Essences with you and we are glad that this is happening. These are two very powerful Essences that are named after us. Each has their own vibrational healing effect.”

Regeneration of the Divine Light Body Set * Pineal and Kings Chamber

Pineal Gland Renewal Blend

There is so much need for the renewal and reawakening of the pineal gland and the chatter is all over on our spiritual sites and you tube videos. This gland is in the very center of your brain which connects to the third eye capabilities and when it's returned to its "original" state we will have so much more in the area of communication via telepathy and connection to our highest source. Oud is the most powerful protection and most expensive essences in the world and it's only used by royals and those of wealthy means. The royal families all over the mid east understand the power of Oud and use it daily for their highest protection. Oud is one of the essences used in the Pineal Gland Renewal Blend.

- Place on Third Eye and the Crown Chakra
- Extra Special Blend contains Oud. Oud is extremely cherished and very expensive. It is used for the Highest protection and awareness in all mid east.

Kings Chamber

King's Chamber helps the body to handle the energetic changes which occur from using the Pineal Gland Renewal. Kings Chamber holds a very special energy for helping us all adjust to the vibrational shifts that have been happening with the planet, the sun and in our bodies. Many of us have been down, tired, having odd physical symptoms and are confused as to why. Even if we understand what is causing these shifts, they still are not so easy on all our bodies.

- Place on the Solar Plexus
- Unusual combination of flower and fruit essences.
- Both of these essences should be used together

*These are to be used together as a set. When you apply the Pineal Gland Renewal Blend to the third and the crown chakras, it is very important that you follow with the Kings Chamber on the solar plexus. Because it is so powerful, it is recommended to use it very sparingly and no more than once or twice a week. However, you may use the Kings Chamber alone without the Pineal daily if you wish to help with energy and vibrational shifts.

Divine Feminine Essence

Exclusive blend of special sacred flowers that elevate the vibrations combining your heart and solar plexus chakra centers so the Divine Feminine energies are triggered in your emotional and physical bodies in such a way that you begin to gradually begin to recognize the outpouring of love and compassion in you and all things that in your life that you overlooked before.

Aromatherapy

Eucalyptus and Mint

You can feel this working immediately. It's wonderful to use before meditation to help clear you. Opens breathing channels and helps with sinus, allergies, asthma, virus, colds, and headaches. The steam and vapor will kill bacteria and disinfect. It cleans the sinus, and helps relieve headaches. The vibration from this essence helps with any sleep problems and to stop snoring. It also helps to prevent the destruction of the body's normal antibiotics from consistent use of air-conditioning and helps to clean your body of air pollutants.

Romance/True Love Collection

Honeymoon

Honeymoon Essence Story

In ancient times a young Bedouin girl was in love with boy from another village and they were not allowed to marry. She loved him so much that she promised herself and her tribes head chiefs that if she was allowed marry him she would make a very special, natural fragrance for her wedding, and gift it everyone in attendance. The founding fathers finally agreed and she made this essence they call Honeymoon. People all through the Mid East still use it today for any marriage, anniversary and celebrations of love.

A Blend of Flowers and Vanilla

Secret of the Desert

Special blend that helps with love. It's time to tell the secret known through the Middle Eastern culture. The lady uses this in the evening, they say after midnight, to make the man crazy about her. Apply in special places as an upside down triangle and it makes the man amorous for three hours. Known to help with impotence and relieves the worries that smokers have about their abilities.

Love Potion #9

Made from combination of flowers and trees, with touch of lily of the valley, saffron, royal amber, white musk. Special for romance and falling deeply in love. Wonderful for that special night.

True Love Blend

Special Blend made from a combination of essences including Honeymoon, Love Potion #9 and Secret of the Desert. Be sure to use the channeled True Love Prayer to help raise your vibrations to send and receive True Love.

Prayer for True Love Essence Blend

“Dear Universal Oneness of Light and Love, the God of my heart. I thank you that I was created from your love and that you made me in the exact perfect way that you did. We are all one wrapped together in the blanket of your love and comfort. You made each and every one of us beautiful, perfect and whole and inside of us you placed the capacity to love others as you love us. You have placed in us the capacity to forgive others easily and the understanding to allow each to discover their own truths. Thank you for helping me to open my heart more to allowing my vibration to raise so that I will draw to me the truest love, loves and lovers that are the most happy and joyous match to me.”

Special Meditation

Preparation for Meditation

You can use any of the Beloved Essences with this meditation practice that you might have on hand. I found I have gotten the best results using the Divine Feminine on my heart area, and ISIS and RA Essence on each wrist pulse point. Then rub your wrists together, close your eyes, and smell. You can alternate this with the Divine Light Body set of the Pineal Gland and Kings Chamber but this set is to be used only twice a week at the most. It's too powerful to be used daily.

When we are in Egypt, the Holy Man always uses the Mint and Eucalyptus Essence before any meditation. It clears your head, helps you to relax, and be more open to receive and understand and any guidance that may come through. The easiest way to do this is to place a tiny bit in a steamy cup of warm to hot water. Carefully put a few drops in small amount of hot water. Cover the cup and let sit for about ½ minute or so. Remove cover and as you do so close your eyes, lower head over steaming cup and gently inhale vapor in through your nose. Be extra cautious because the cup and water vapor will be hot. Hold your breath for a brief period then softly blow a little out, not all of it. Hold breath again and place hands on hips to inhale a little more deeply, hold breath. Then softly exhale and little more but still not all of it. Inhale one more time even deeper, hold and softly exhale completely through your mouth. As you do these steps you will start to feel the vapor of the Eucalyptus and Mint move up through your nose, it will be felt gently moving to your head and brain, then down your throat and to your ribcage and your lungs. It will continue this movement for about 10 minutes and you will still feel it.

Light Being Meditation

“Sit back, Relax. Get yourself in a calm space, close your eyes and focus on your breath.

Gently and slowly breathe in and out and in and out. Releasing tension and worry. Breathe in and out. Relaxing more and more. Releasing more and more. Continue to breathe in and out slowly

You are one of us dear one and we are one of you. There is no difference you see. We are so connected that one breath breaths for all of us. One breath, one being - One. Consciousness is One. Expand that consciousness to become the One that is the loving, nurturing, healing and compassionate that it has always been. As for any other entities with a different agenda, they do not matter. All will become one with the light anyway.

The time is now and we are with you consistently. The little everyday dramas that go on in the human evolvment back to spirit will soon be recognized as just that; little melodramas that are not real nor are they important. They are what you created to learn, grow and enjoy through each aspect of your adventure on this planet. Once you really get a grasp of that and know you are the true creator, your human drama and issues will just melt away. You will step forth each day in awe, wonderment, gratitude, love and excitement for all who are sharing this planetary space with you.

We are here to help you come to that understanding if you will allow our help. Just breathe calmly in and out and relax into the wonderful calm place of love and protection. Let yourself drift to your beautiful sacred space which you love to do and continue to breathe. Relax complete and totally.

Now - see yourself as the beautiful, perfect, complete and whole light being as we see you. Can you see you? Imagine your image if you are not seeing this just yet. The imagination is very powerful and it becomes a reality soon enough. Imagine your true self, your powerful self and imagine you seeing us light beings surrounding you and being with you daily for encouragement and support in every aspect that you could possibly imagine or have a need of. Now notice just how our energies and light bodies seem to connect and in places merge together and in places are separate.

You see, we are part of you and have always been. Now breathe more deeply and stay relaxed. Let us guide you with any questions you may still have as to the how's, whys and when's; and the what if's and why not's. We will always send you the correct answers which will resonate true for you.

We ask that you view yourself in this space of the true light being that you really are; the powerful messenger that you are and return to your daily activities with that understanding and knowledge.

So now gently return yourself to your physical form, easily, and slowly. And when you are ready, open your eyes and let them smile.”
