Beloved Essences

Ancient Twin Hearts LLC

2010-2011

YOUR MOST IMPORTANT TOOLKIT

The ancients used these essences to stimulate, clear and balance the body and its systems. If you don't have your body, what do you have?

Want a Job? Business Opportunities Available for Independent Distributors

“If you wait until your body is completely dehydrated before you drink something or completely emaciated before you eat something, your body can get far out of balance. While it is possible to eventually bring your body back to a state of well-being—it is much easier to maintain a healthy physical balance than to recover it after losing it.

Most people never put themselves into the dramatic situation where they are without water or food to the point of doing damage to their physical bodies; however, it is not uncommon for people to deprive their bodies of something equally important: alignment with Source Energy.

In the same way that it is a good idea to drink when you feel the indication of thirst—and therefore maintain your Well-Being long before dehydration is experienced—it is equally important to change the thought and release resistance at the first indication of negative emotion. For while it is certainly possible to withstand negative emotion for long periods of time, it is not the optimal experience for the cells of your physical body.

When you learn to release resistance in the early, subtle stages, your physical body must thrive. Thriving is what is natural to you.---- Abraham-Hicks”

About Our Beloved Essences

100% pure Egyptian Essences combined in special blends with prayers and healing vibrations infused through them. All the Essences are blessed by the Godfather, Holy Man who lives in the most powerful area on the whole planet, directly in front of the Great Pyramid (Kings Chamber). They are an aid in meditation and powerful chakra work for clearing any blocks that keep you from having the life you really desire and should be used daily for wonderful benefits to the physical, emotional and spiritual body.

People often comment that they can feel the wonderful uplifting, harmonious vibrations that these essence carry.

Beloved Essences are not diluted in any way. They do not contain any oils, alcohol or chemicals that usually create allergic reactions and aversions to certain smells. They do not evaporate and they most certainly are NOT essential oils. They are 100% pure highly concentrated Egyptian ESSENCES certified by the Egyptian government. The finest International perfume/perfume companies use only 1%—10% of these essences as the base for the fine expensive designer fragrances.

"I've had to be on sleeping pills for 2 years but since I've started using the 9th (Angel) and 10th (Main Gate) chakra essences, I fall asleep quickly and sleep through the night like a baby. I'm so happy that I don't need sleeping pills any more. It's like a MIRACLE for me."

*Thank you

What Others Are Saying

“Madalyn, I wish to thank you so very much for your beautiful Essences. From the moment they arrived , I not only loved the aroma to inhale for Healing but quickly replaced all the other Perfumes . As I placed such a tiny drop on my wrist I knew with the knowledge Madelyn so kindly gave me it was Healing where it was needed..As I am also very connected with anything Egyptian it is so amazing knowing the history of how they have been blessed and the vibration of the The God/Goddess energy is very evident, I know I will not be able to be without them ,they are truly gorgeous. Anyone who has these Essences will also be blessed,thanks Madalyn ,I love our connection,wishing every success for whatever your heart desires” Love & Blessings, Rosalie Muir of Australia

“The name itself says everything.... “Beloved” because that is how I felt when using them, “Beloved”. There isn’t a day that goes by that I don’t use the Essences.....I listen to my guides and use the one that calls to me for that day....

Recently, I had a surgery that not only was a difficult recovery physically but mentally and found out that it was also a very STRONG life “lesson”.... I had many ups and downs along with mental anguish associated with this surgery and in my worst days and hours, I felt strongly guided to pick up my beautiful pouch of essences.

The ones that called to me most were for the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Chakras which amazingly were exactly where the severe pain was. Upon listening, and applying the Beloved Essences, I could feel the heat and energy go directly to where I needed it to most and felt immediate relief for hours. These essences were healing me.... Along with bringing me the mental calm, peace and strength I needed to keep going. I know without a doubt that these essences called to me directly...they knew I needed their help. This just proves to me that Spirit is strong and lives in each and every one of us and calls to us and gives us guidance when we can't seem to hear, or see anything else. These essences are a magical gift from Spirit given to Madalyn to share with the world. I can't thank you enough Maddie....I will never go another day without them. In my normal physical state, they provide me with a direct feeling of linking in with Spirit and can't imagine my life without them. Thank you for bringing to us Madalyn! Forever a customer in heart, mind and body!" Love & Light, Susan C., TX.
